Doyle Logan was a victim of circumstance this last week end. He owns the Richfield Service Station at 174th and S. E. Powell, Portland, which was held up Saturday night.

Two young men entered the station around 8 PM and ordered him to face the wall. They held a gun on Doyle while they robbed the cash register of about $150. The men fled from the station on foot. If they had a car it apparently was not parked very close. Doyle called the police and told them as much as he could, in hopes the two could be apprehended.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sofich, Denny, Joanne, Sharon and Larry, Bobby Rowles, Jerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Alvin, Phillip, Judy and Randy went on a picnic and fishing trip near Zig Zag. Frank was the only one to get his limit of trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Morley are new neighbors on North Gunderson Road. They have three children.

The Lester Burkes acquired nine large rabbits and two small ones last Sunday.

The Welches school budget was voted on and passed Monday night. There were 49 votes cast. Milton Fox, unopposed, was re-elected to the school board.

Welches school's 7th grade had a rather eventful field trip last week to Peterson's Rock Gardens in Eastern Oregon. Aside from all the fun enjoyed and the good food, trouble dogged the group. The Everett Darr's new car developed an oil leak and caught on fire. Irene Petrie had a flat tire, the children were frightened by a rattlesnake and one of the boys dropped a large rock on his toe which left the toe, if not broken, at least badly bent! Some days are like that!

Welches school's 4th grade, for their field trip went to the Portland Peninsula Park to see the penguins then to the Washington Park where they had lunch and spent some time inspecting the animals in the zoo there. From Washington park they went to look at the Forestry Building and then on home.

WELCHES

Because KOIN-TV has installed a new $45,000 electronic recording device called

"Ampex" which records both sight and sound on tape, Bill Drips was able to sit at home last Saturday and watch his own program for the first time. Mr. Drips states that it will be easier to plan programs now that they can be completed ahead of time for showing on Saturday. Visiting dignitaries can be interviewed who might not be available for the show on Saturday.

A sad note .. Pancho is no more.

Mrs. Hattie Kelly, pioneer settler of Welches, fearing that her old spaniel, Pancho, would be hit by one of the logging trucks now traveling on Welches Road, had her son-in-law John Sambert, take the dog in to Portland for safekeeping. Mr. Sambert had just let the dog out of his car in Portland when he (Pancho) was struck by a car and killed.

Wilbur Wills, an elderly man from Vancouver, who had been visiting in the Welches area, suffered a seizure of some sort, while walking towards the highway on Welches Road near the Drips home last week. Officer Paul Lowery was called and Mr. Wills was transported to a Portland hospital by a local ambulance, where he is said to be resting comfortably.
