

Morrell Vows Said In Double Ring Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony Friday evening, June 20, Miss Jeanette Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Les Wallace, Sandy, became the bride of Paul Morrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrell of Estacada.

Pink gladiolas and candlelight were in the background at the altar of the Sandy Assembly of God church with Reverend Melvin Grams performing the ceremony. Solovox music was provided by Janice Osterback and Linda Sherman was pianist with a cousin of the bride, Miss Louise Koenig of Portland as the vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon lace over white satin with a fingertip veil. Her bouquet, centered with an orchid, was of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Donna Waugh, maid of honor, wore a ballerina-length frock of coral and silver nylon lace and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas and roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Wallace in a ballerina length pink nylon and Miss Nola Gilbert wearing a like gown of orchid nylon lace. They carried bouquets of roses

GLIMPSES BY ROSS

By Ross Andersen

On various occasions my better half has complimented your reporter, by asking for information on various subjects, sometimes the answers were within the bounds of my knowledge, but frequently the wisdom of a Philadelphia lawyer, or a newspaper editor would be in order.

As of yesterday, out of a clear sky, she offered the following:

"Please tell me, what's a Yankee? Are all Americans Yankees. Could you and I, being born in Denmark, be classified as Yankees?"

And I said to her, "Wait 'till I get the 'Book of Knowledge'."

"Here it is, and it says right here that the theories which have been advanced as to the origin of this name are numerous.

"According to a writer named Thierny, it was a corruption of Jankin, a diminutive of John, which was a nickname given by the Dutch and sweetpeas. They all wore dotted net head-dresses to match their gowns.

Best man was Joe Janssens with another attendant of the groom's, Loren Bowman. Ushers were Lawrence Wallace, brother of the bride and Bill Koenig, cousin of the bride.

Candlelighters were Caroline Fritsche and Diane Sturdevant, both cousins of the bride. Caroline, who is from Sandy, wore a coral nylon dress and Diane from Hemet, California, wore blue nylon.

Flower girl was Lisa Wallace, younger sister of the bride and ring bearer was Joe Randall, nephew of the groom.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the church basement with Mrs. Charles Wallace of Oak Grove serving the wedding cake and Mrs. Rita Gilbert and Miss Eleanor Butler pouring. Miss Earline Hellman was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Helen Laffer of Coos Bay, in charge of gifts.

For her wedding trip to Cannon Beach, the bride wore a grey and black suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will make their home in Portland. Mrs. Morrell is a graduate of Sandy High School in May and the groom is a graduate of the Estacada High School.

colonists of New York to their neighbors in the Connecticut settlements.

In the history of the American war written by Dr. William Gordon and published in 1789, was another theory.

Dr. Gordon said that it was a cant word in Cambridge, Massachusetts, as early as 1713, used to denote especial excellence... as a Yankee good horse, Yankee good cider, etc. He supposed that it was originally a byword in the college, and, being taken by the students into parts of the country, gradually obtained general currency in New England, and at length came to be taken up in other parts of the country and applied to New Englanders as a term of slight reproach.

Aubrey, an English writer, says that it is derived from a Cherokee word... eankke... which signifies coward and slave. This epithet was bestowed on the inhabitants of New England by the Virginians for not assisting them in a war with the Cherokees.

The most probable theory, however, is that advanced by a Mr. Heckwelder, that the Indians, in endeavoring to pronounce the word English, or Anglairs, made it Yengees, and this originated the term. Your reporter respectfully submits the above as a result of his research and investigation into what constitutes a real "Yankee".

As to Mrs. Andersen's question, "Are we real Yankees?" What's in a name honey, let's be satisfied to being ordinary good Americans!
