

Davis-Wood Nuptials Read At Pleasant Home Church

In an evening ceremony at Pleasant Home Baptist church Clara Lucille Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Davis of Orient, exchanged wedding vows with John Alvin Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Wood of Gresham.

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums, Reverend Earl Eaton performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Marvin Dixon was organist and Glen Lamb was soloist.

The bride, wearing a floor-length gown of lace over satin and a three-quarters length veil of nylon net, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Maxine Hudgeons in a pastel pink dress and matching head-piece, was maid of honor. Miss Lynda Kaye Light wearing pastel green and Miss Roxana Steele, wearing pastel yellow with matching head-dresses were bridesmaids.

Barbara Wood and Florence Davis were candle lighters and Loreta Sheppard was flower girl. Pat Sparks was ring-bearer.

Duane Wood, Sandy, was best man for his nephew and ushers were Clifton Davis, a brother of the bride, and Melvin Holt, the groom's uncle.

At the reception attended by 200 guests Mrs. Arlie Tackler poured and Mrs. Sam Sargent cut the cake. Mrs. Ron Arnold served punch and Mrs. Amy Dowsett assisted by her son, Lt. Col. Dale Autman of Pennsylvania, helped serve. The Misses Margy and Maxine Hovda and Shirley Allen were in charge of the gifts and Dan Davis took care of the guest book for his sister.

Sandy guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gunderson and daughter Sharon, Mrs. Udene Urban and Miss Nieda Epperson and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wood and son.

The young couple are now at home in the Gresham area following a week's honeymoon at the coast.

The Davis family were former Sandy residents and the bride attended Sandy schools until they moved to Orient.

Elizabeth Munz, Carl Shetterly Crowned Pioneer Queen and King

The annual summer meeting and picnic of the Sandy Pioneers was held Sunday, July 27 in the Pioneer Park located on the Loop Highway just west of Sandy.

Despite the intense heat a large crowd of early settlers, their descendants and friends from far and near gathered for the reunion. Picnic dinner was enjoyed by many as the park is well equipped with tables, outdoor ovens and an abundance of water.

After lunch the crowd assembled at the pavillion which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by members of a committee headed by Mrs. Anton Malar and Mrs. Frank Hauser.

The highlight of the summer meeting is always the crowning of the Queen and King who have been chosen at the winter meeting. This year the honors fell on Mrs. Elizabeth Munz as queen and Mr. Carl Shetterly as king.

Mrs. Munz was born in Oregon, the daughter of pioneer settlers and grew up in the Sandy vicinity. She was crowned by her daughter Betty after her life history had been read by her other daughter Thelma.

Mr. Shetterly was born in Iowa but came to Oregon with his parents in 1889 and grew to manhood in this vicinity. Mrs. Olive Lusted Brown, a friend since childhood, placed the crown on his head proclaiming him King for 1958, after which he related some of the events of early days.

Invocation was given by Reverend Father Fritz and music for the occasion was provided by George Hale on the accordion and solos by Curtis Isakson who accompanied himself on the guitar.

Several past queens and kings were present and many former residents came from afar among them being Mr. S. New from Dayville, Oregon and Mrs. Shankland, aged 93, perhaps the oldest one present.

Several others were introduced who spoke briefly of the early days. The meeting was adjourned by the president and all enjoyed visiting with old time friends.

DeShazer Family Holds Reunion

Six of his daughters and several other relatives were present for a family reunion at the home of J. G. DeShazer on Sunday, July 27.

A potluck dinner was served to the large group in the afternoon.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Craft of Kahului, Maui, in the Hawaiian Islands; Mr. and Mrs. Don Roberts of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William Updegrave of Roseburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Updegrave of Dover. These are all daughters of Mr. DeShazer. Miss Ruth DeShazer and Miss Gertrude DeShazer, who live at home, were also present.

In addition there were several grandchildren and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Bud Updegrave and Laurie; Mr. and Mrs. William Dietrich and four boys of Myrtle Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Dayton and three children of Troutdale. Mrs. Susan Kelliher of Portland, mother of Charles and William Updegrave, joined the group later.

Mr. and Mrs. Craft have been visiting the Roberts' in Portland and planned to return to Hawaii the 29th.

Boring Man Takes Bride

A recent bride was Miss Nancy Zornman, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Zornman of Gresham, when she was wed to Stephen Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Day of Boring. Reverend Edwin Metclif read the ceremony at Rockwood Evangelical Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by George Bunce of Portland, the bride wore a white floor-length gown of lace and carried a cascade bouquet of roses centered with an orchid. A crown of pearls, sequins and lace held her finger-tip veil.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Joan Zornman and bridesmaids were the Misses Shirley Houston of Boring and Mary Molezan of Gresham. All wore green waltz-length dresses.

Olony Baucom of Portland was best man and ushers were Carl Mason of Portland and Jim Major of Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Day are making their home temporarily near Boring.

To be rich in admiration and free from envy, to rejoice greatly in the good of others, to love with such generosity of heart that your love is still a clear possession in absence of unkindness — these are the gifts of fortune which money cannot buy and without which money can buy nothing.

Alan Townsend started feeding Purina Chows according to the Purina program to his entire herd about April 1, 1957. He has trimmed his herd from 40 to 25 cows while maintaining the same milk production.

Since that time Mrs. Townsend has improved the condition of his cows and his records show a substantial increase in production for less money per pound of milk.

Alan Townsend is also producing some top replacement heifers with Purina Nursing Chow, Calf Startina, and D & F Chow at a minimum cost. Stop by and talk with Alan Townsend and see his milk cows and heifers.

We carry a complete line of Purina Dairy Chows and sanitation supplies . . . for more profitable dairying.
