BULL RUN. . .

By Elizabeth Haggstrom

This is visiting time around the Aims-Bull Run area. Bea Miller of Bull Run has recently returned from a short vacation and the B. J. Yonker family are expected back in Aims this week from a trip to Nebraska.

Weekend guests at the Charles Elsner home in Aims were the Misses Helen, Luella and Evelyn Leete of Sparta, Wisconsin and Myrtle Moore of LaCrosse, Wisconsin. They are cousins of Mrs. Elsner and all are school teachers making a vacation trip West via Canada and returning through Yellowstone Park. They were all impressed by the beauty of our western states and thoroughly enjoyed the Scenic Columbia River Highway.

The Stromberg family of Aims had a short visit last week with David Baylink and wife. David, a former Aimsite, graduated with Karl Stromberg from Sandy Hi and is now a full-fledged M.D. He hoped to visit with Karl but they crossed paths in mid-journey as David was returning from a year's duty as intern in a New York Hospital and Karl was enroute East to his new work in the University.

The Karl Haggstroms had Philip Haggstrom and family as guests last Sunday and Roy Haggstrom went home with his brother for a two-week stay in Yamhill.

The Van Ausdell's have been having visitors all during July . . . some from back east and others from Spokane and vicinity.
