

Marlene Kay Motejl Is Bride In Gold And Green Summer Setting

A late summer theme of green, yellow and bronze was carried out in church decorations and the gowns of the wedding party when Miss Marlene Kay Motejl was married Sunday, August 17, to Charles Steven Haldors, Grace Memorial Episcopal Church of Portland was decorated with gold and bronze dahlias and yellow gladioli for the double ring ceremony which was performed at 4 PM by Reverend John Richardson. Don McPherson was organist and Mrs. Vivian Lyman was soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Motejl, Sandy, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haldors, Portland.

Dressed in white antique silk, the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her gown was floor-length with a train, trimmed in lace around a scoop neckline which topped an empire waist with three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a small crown of seed pearls and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Miss Jeanne Scales, Sandy, was maid of honor. She wore a chemise dress of mint green lace over taffeta with a bow in back and a green picture hat. Her bouquet was a cascade of gold and bronze dahlias.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Scales, Miss Marylee Stroup, Miss Ann Haldors, Miss Eileen Greer and Mrs. Connie Evans. Their dresses and flowers were the same as the honor attendant's.

Miss Kimberley Sagner was flower girl, wearing white organza, and Thomas Katt was ring-bearer.

Best man was Donald Davis of Portland. Ushers were John Severtson, Richard Watson, Richard West, Jim Meadows and Gerald McDowell. Junior ushers were Michael Motejl and James Haldors.

Mrs. Motejl wore a toast crepe and lace sheath for her daughter's wedding, with matching shoes and hat and a corsage of green orchids. The mother of the groom wore a coffee color chiffon sheath and a green orchid corsage.

Over 300 guests attended the wedding and the reception in the church parlors. Gold and green flower arrangements were used with a central decorations of bird of paradise and antherium. Mrs. Van Antwerp and Mrs. Coryl L. Moran poured with Miss Sue Brill presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. George Krasch, Tacoma, cut the wedding cake and Miss Patti Haines had charge of the guest book.

Among the many out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs.

Clark Howard and Dennis of LaMesa, California; Miss Eileen Greer, Mt. Vernon, Washington; Mrs. George Krasch of Tacoma and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swerver of Newport.

For her wedding trip to southern California the bride wore a red silk dressmaker suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Haldors will be at home in Portland after September 1.

Bridal Shower Fetes Mrs. Kautz

Newlywed Mrs. Kenneth Kautz, the former Joyce Copher, was guest of honor at a bridal shower held Saturday afternoon, August 16 at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Kautz. Mrs. Ken Sitner, Portland, daughter of Mrs. Kautz, was hostess for the affair.

Many lovely gifts were received by the honoree. A beautiful bride's cake and ice cream were served for refreshments. There were 26 ladies attending, all friends and neighbors of the Kautz's.

Party Honors Ricky Metsger

To celebrate his seventh birthday Saturday, August 16, Ricky Metsger, son of the John Metsgers, had a few friends over for a small party in the afternoon.

The boys enjoyed foot races and a game of baseball before partaking of birthday cake and ice cream.

Those present were Nicky Nasshahn, Tommy Katt, Dennis Burg and Terry Lacock.
