

HILLCREST...

Members of the Sandy GOC joined other GOC organizations at Jantzen Beach last Saturday, August 16 for a group picnic. Special guests at the picnic were Geri Lindsey and Bruce Vanderhoof, Portland television personalities. Driving cars from here were Ed Sindt and Mrs. Edith Weidman. Others attending were Mrs. Reid and daughters Barbara and Karen, Mrs. Lou Sindt, Mrs. Norma Sindt and daughter Sandra and her friend Christine Campbell, Mrs. Hazel McQuaw and her daughter Elaine, Mrs. Wanda Kuehn and sons Gayle and Vern. Joining the Sandy group at their table were Sgt. Vannattie, post supervisor and his wife and two children. The Hillcrest group also met Mrs. Earl Page, the former Roberta Chapman, and her four children of Longview, Washington. They were former residents of this area.

Guests of the Guy Chiltons on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nicholson of Rockwell City, Iowa and their son Airman 2/c Robert E. Nicholson, who flew in from Hamilton AFB to join his parents here. They will drive him back to his base. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Stonebacker; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buswell and daughter, Sandy; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicholson, Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Nicholson and two sons. Also Mrs. Jurine Fossum of White Fish, Montana and Miss JoAnne Chilton.

Orrin McQuaw, 86 year old father of George McQuaw, died in Portland Friday, August 15. He is survived by 11 of his 12 children, 35 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

The Milo Carters had their daughters and families as guests over the weekend and all assisted Mr. Carter in constructing a shop building. The group included Mr. and Mrs. Woody Ludahl and sons John and Sonny of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Egnew and son of Boring and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sadiwasser and Vernon, Dolly and Randy of Vancouver, Washington.

A flying visit was made by Miss Bettie Briggs of Banks to the George McQuaw home last Sunday. Miss Briggs called the McQuaws to have them meet her at the McKinnon airport and in fifteen minutes the McQuaws were there at the airport and the plane piloted by Robert Hofer was circling the field. She arrived at noon and was picked up again at 4 PM for her trip back to Banks.
