Party Honors Four Year Old

Little Marty Steffl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Steffl celebrated her fourth birthday with a royal party held at the home of her parents on Tuesday afternoon, August 26.

The young guests received invitations in the form of a scroll. Each of the little princes and princesses were given decorated paper crowns. The guest of honor reigned over all on a red corduroy covered throne.

Drawstring bags were given to each youngster to hunt for the royal jewel. The treasure, hidden in the back yard, proved to be individually wrapped hard candies.

The children, dressed in swimming attire, enjoyed two swimming pools set up in the back yard, gaily decorated with crepe paper and balloons.

A doll cake, resting on a musical plate, featured the party refreshments. The doll also had a silver crown atop her head.

Guests were Lois Popelka, Lora, Linda and Dennis Dryer, Ardel Neuman, Cindy Smith, Wayne Splawn, Lenna, Laurie and Jay Swails, Vickie and Susan Rohrberg, Carolyn Brown and Marty's three sisters, Michelle, Melanie and Marcella. Invited but unable to attend were Nancy Martin, and Larry and Pam Longstreet. Several of the mothers also enjoyed the party.
