Mrs. Halbert Hawken was hostess to the members of the Busy Bee club Thursday afternoon. Twelve members answered roll call. A get-well card was signed by members to be sent to Carl Hanson who has been ill. Hanson was formerly a resident of this area but now lives at Hillsboro. After the business meeting refreshments were served and the rest of the afternoon was spent visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Caldwell were Tuesday afternoon callers at the Ernie Hoffmeister home. The Caldwells have purchased a house and an acre of ground in Kelso and will move at the end of the month.

Mrs. Esther Taber, Sacramento, California, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Katie Erdman. Mrs. Taber plans to spend a month here in Oregon.

Mrs. Donald Marshall came out from Portland last Wednesday and took her mother, Mrs. P. E. Bartlemay, in to visit her mother, Mrs. Minna Bottemiller. Mrs. Bartlemay's sister, Mrs. Margaret Price was there and took several four-generation pictures.

Mrs. Ray Edwards and Miss Mable Malloy of Portland came out Monday and helped Mrs. Hawken can corn.

The twin children of Mr.

and Mrs. David Jeness, Portland spent Saturday night at the home of their grandparents, the Paul Bartlemays. On Sunday their parents came out after them and while here took corn home with them to put in the deep freeze.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hedges, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedges and family of Stafford were Sunday evening callers at the Halbert Hawken home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hetzel Colt enjoyed a cruise on the Columbia river Sunday with Mr. Colt's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Downing, of Portland. They went from Sun Dial beach to Sand Island where they picnicked for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hoffmeister were Friday afternoon visitors at the home of Ernie's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Longwell in Portland. Later in the evening they enjoyed a hamburger fry at the Longwells in their patio.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bartlemay and family of Kent, Washington, were over night guests at the home of his brother, Paul Bartlemay.

Halbert Hawken was not feeling so well again Saturday and Sunday, but at this writing he is some improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sonksen and family of Santa Monica were Tuesday visitors at the Paul Bartlemay home. Mr. Bartlemay and Mrs. Sonksen are cousins and had not seen each other for years.

BULL RUN...

By Elizabeth Haggstrom

The ASSU Camp at Trout Creek is in full swing. There are three age groups to participate and last week's group (3 to 5 grade) had over 50 youngsters and at the rate they were coming last Sunday there should be an equal amount of 6 to 8 graders this week.

The Chapel was well filled for the morning services which was family day. Bryce Bartruff, the area missionary, introduced Mr. Don McFarling, who with his wife Ruby will replace Mr. and Mrs. Taggart as the district superintendent. Mr. Taggart, who was 65 last Saturday automatically reached retirement, after almost 24 years of American Sunday School Union work, much of which was in our own Pacific Northwest.

Mr. McFarling introduced

Mr. Jack Sisler, who with his wife, are enjoying a Sabbathical vacation after 7 years of missionary work in Borneo. The Sislers will soon go to Brazil.

The ASSU Camps, as well as Central Bible and other fundamental Bible camps, are doing a wonderful work in this area. The boys and girls have a wonderful time with hikes, swimming and craft work, besides the quiet times of Bible instruction and they receive three wholesome meals a day. Mrs. Margaret Udey, who is assistant cook at Corbett grade school, is the main dish cook with Mrs. Allan Baker in charge of the desserts. Another lady also helps and things are almost perfectly arranged this year in the kitchen. There is a trained nurse in case of accidents and the telephone keeps this "out in the wilderness" place in easy touch with every day life.

School starts in Bull Run on September 2 and in Corbett on September 4 with the regular meeting of the Aims Community club, after a two month summer recess, sandwiched between the school openings on Wednesday September 3. As this is the busy season for most members, it was agreed to dispense with the quarterly potluck luncheon and hold an afternoon 1:30 meeting.

Autumn brings the regular social season back in activity with the American Legion and Auxiliary still to have installation and the PTA's, all starting again. Mrs. Jack Nichols, Bull Run PTA president, has not so far indicated if PTA will be held the first week of school or not, but it will be soon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Colson were hosts last week to Mr. and Mrs. Herhall McDowell and daughter Kathy of Seattle. During the week the Colson's took the McDowell family on a trip to Mt. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kennedy had company from Idaho last week. They were Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and family. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook and family of Wichita, Kansas have also been recent visitors at the Kennedy home.

Mrs. Lloyd Zink and Mrs. Leonard Johnson celebrated their birthdays last Sunday with a picnic dinner at Roslyn Lake. Helping them celebrate were Mrs. Zink's children, Connie and Tommy and Mrs. Johnson's husband and Donna, Diane and Danny. Also Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pearson, Bobby, Jerry and Sheryl Ann, Mrs. Mary Johnson and the Floyd Johnson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wright came up to visit the Albert Mason family last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Williams and Wanda and Danny Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, parents of Mrs. William, took a short vacation last week to the coast. They camped out near Charleston and went fishing there and at Ten Mile Lake. Mrs. Williams caught the biggest sea perch in the crowd on the second day. On the third day they went to Coquille and picked up Eddie and Duane Williams who had been visiting their aunt and uncle the Manley Johnsons. They also visited the Sea Lions cave before returning home.

Shirley Mason visited in Portland last weekend with her sister, Gloria, who is staying with some friends there.

Sandra Oakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oakes of Portland, celebrated her first birthday at her grandmothers, Mrs. Albert Mason. They had cake and ice cream.
