

OES Meeting Draws Visitors

Friendship Night for Mt. View Chapter, Order of Eastern Star was held Tuesday, November 11 at the Masonic hall. Visitors from a number of Portland chapters and the Gresham chapter were introduced during the evening. Among the many visitors was May Tardiff, Grand Electa of the Grand Chapter and seven worthy matrons and four worthy patrons. Also, many associate matrons and associate patrons and other officers from outlying chapters.

Only one officer was absent, Harriet Ellis, whose office was filled by Ora Shetterly. Beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums were used in decorating the hall and dining room.

A report on the turkey dinner was given by Conductress Irene Wills. Members were again reminded to bring their gifts of canned goods for the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove to the next meeting.

Mrs. Virginia Edes, mother advisor of the Sandy Rainbow Assembly made an announcement for the December 15 meeting of the Assembly when the Worthy Grand Advisor will make her official visitation and invited all members of the Masonic and Eastern Star groups to attend. Also a Gresham officer announced the planned institution of a new order of Rainbow for Gresham on December 21 with public installation of officers to follow. Portland 14 will be the instituting Assembly.

At the December 9 meeting a School of Instruction will be held and all offers and members are urged to be present. A potluck dinner will be held in the dining room at 6:30 with the meeting to follow.

The meeting was recessed for the entertainment. First on the program was little Judy Gray who presented a group of accoridian solos followed by a selection of songs by Mrs. David Bell who was accompanied by Mrs. Kay Oldenkamp. Gifts were presented the entertainers by the worthy matron. At this time also, the Marguerites were asked to distribute the gaily wrapped bulbs to all visitors and members as a token of Friendship Night.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by the dining room committee chairmaned by Agnes Barker.

HILLCREST ...

By HAZEL McQUAW

Virgil Carson is in Emanuel hospital again, this time he has been in for two weeks and will be there for some time yet. His first stay was for three weeks and then back to his home at the coast. He is now in traction for treatment of a cracked disc in his back. The days are long and his injury very painful. He would appreciate hearing from his friends in the Sandy area.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carson went to Astoria over the weekend to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Ohler and family and to help the Ohlers celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mike and Martha Carter and the George McQuaws went Elk hunting near Seaside the past week end. Reported plenty of rain but not much success in finding elk.

Gordon McQuaw came home over the weekend to visit his parents, the George McQuaws but missed them as they were on an elk hunting trip. He returned to his Coast Guard base at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kilgore, their daughter Carol and his father Oran spent the four-day holiday visiting relatives in Tule Lake, California. They came home by way of Eugene where they stopped and made a telephone call to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Befus, former Sandy residents, and found them all fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stringham celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Monday, November 10. On Sunday their three daughters, their husband and children came to help them celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weidman went to Culver on Sunday to visit a cousin, Charles Schamel whom they had lost track of the past 28 years. They reported the weather as sunny and the day most enjoyable.

Frank Leitheiser with his nephew Leo Johnson went elk hunting into eastern Oregon. They met up with Don Lundbom over there. Frank returned home with an elk that dressed out 237 pounds. While he was away Ted Ober looked after the farm and Mrs. Leitheiser's nephew, Robert Johnson stayed to help her.

George McQuaw celebrated a birthday on November 5. Didn't say which one.
