BORING...

In an impressive ceremony November 1, at the First Baptist church in Vancouver, Miss Marcia Walling, daughter of Mrs. Harold Walling and the late Harold W. Walling of Vancouver, became the bride of David A. Naas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich of Boring. The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend H. Cameron Angel.

White and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles decorated the church for the evening ceremony.

The organist was Mrs. Carolyn James and John Wood was the soloist.

The bride was lovely in a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta filled bodice and long sleeves. Her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place by lace bows. She carried a nosegay of all white flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle Orval L. Walling of Bickleton, Washington.

Mrs. Howard Scates, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in yellow taffeta with yellow chrysanthemum headpiece and carried bronze chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Carol Shattuck, cousin of the bride, was dressed in bronze taffeta and headpiece and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Candle lighters were Karen Scates, niece of the bride, and Carl Naas, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Walling chose for her daughter's wedding, a street dress in beige, with brown accessories and beige orchid corsage. Mrs. Rich wore a street length dress of royal blue with black accessories and white orchid corsage.

Gary Skala of Boring, was best man and Robert Walling, brother of the bride, Rex Stiles, Wallace Maxwell and Al Schmitz were ushers.

A reception in the church parlors was held immediately following the wedding. Mrs. Elwin Compton, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Fred Altwasser, aunt of the groom, presided at the coffee service, with Miss Darlene Mosier serving the punch. Mrs. Carrie Swick and Mrs. John Kaston, aunt of the groom, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Arthur Tranas was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Robert Walling, Mrs. Orval Walling and Mrs. Glen Munger were in charge of the gift table.

The young couple left immediately following the reception for California points for their honeymoon.

Boring Rebekah Lodge met in regular session Thursday evening with Muriel Markham, noble grand, in the chair. The second nomination for officers took place with Ione Joy replacing Peggy Clark for vice grand. A tribute to Mrs. Erma Rich was read by Mrs. Lela Hoffmeister and a bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums was presented to her by Mrs. Hazel Hite. After lodge closed the ladies retired to the dining room to hold a surprise stork shower for one of our sisters, Mrs. Catherine Horner, who received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hoffmeister were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their daughter and family, the Carl E. Lewis.
