

COTTRELL . . .

By Mrs. H. H. Watkins

Mrs. Harry Woody, the former Rita Dollowitch, was honored with a stork shower at the home of Mrs. Fred Warner on November 7th. About 30 guests were present. Mrs. Warner was assisted by her daughter Mrs. Faye Lake. Assisting with refreshments were Donna Nelson and Phyllis Lindsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo entertained at dinner on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlson of Lusted road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schultz of Mabery have gone to Eugene for a few days visit with their two daughters and families. The Pat Halls have two children.

The 5th grade boys at Cottrell school played the 6th grade boys in basketball last Wednesday afternoon and beat 4 to 0.

Friday night November 14 will be the second 7th and 8th grade skating party for this year. Cars will be driven by parents and classes will be divided and assigned to the cars.

There was a good turnout at the special school meeting on Friday afternoon and evening for the voting of transferring school funds. All votes were favorable.

Perle Crose, who lives adjoining Cottrell Church on the West sold her house and 2 acres to Clarence Eri and has bought a home at 112th street near Powell.

Open house at Cottrell grade school on Thursday evening, November 6th was a very entertaining affair. There was a great deal of the children's work on display and all five teachers were present to talk with parents. The new film-strip projector which was purchased by the Community club, was demonstrated. Sherry Burlingame and Gloria Eblen sang two songs accompanied by Susan Warner. Every one enjoyed the evening very much.

At a special assembly last Friday afternoon the 5th, 6th 7th and 8th grades chose three new yell leaders to help Mary Shaw as this year's yell squad. They are Pat Bennett, Ann Caswell and Burdette Burlingame.

Mrs. Bertha Ault expects to go to Madras this week for a few weeks' visit with her son Albert and her grandson Benny. Albert Ault has sold his place of business in Madras. Zada Berg will look after her mother's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Morse who formerly lived at the Bulb Farm on Bluff road have built a new house adjoining his sister, Mrs. Riley, east of Cottrell School.

BULL RUN . . .

By Elizabeth Haggstrom

The Aims Community Club met Wednesday, November 5 at Marie Thomas' home. It was decided to meet at 11:30 AM next month with the business meeting and election of next year's officers planned, to be followed by a potluck luncheon after which gifts will be exchanged.

Thursday, November 6, there were three meetings: Bible Study at Pastor Goertz' home in Aims; American Legion and Auxiliary in Corbett and PTA in Bull Run. The PTA had as special speaker an IFFY exchange student recently returned from England. Representative for 4-H gave out pins, and Ann Marie Haneberg and Mary Beehler gave reports on their summer camp at Colton and also led in group singing. Collette McKinnon reported on her trip to Corvallis State College this last summer.

Last Sunday was Rest Home Day at the Columbia Gorge Rest Home. Glen Miller was speaker, Catherine Dunlap and Patricia Baker gave piano solos and Frank Dunlap was in charge.

Earl Weeks gave an interesting summation on ASSU, and particularly on Pioneers For Christ, at morning services in the Aims Community Church last Sunday. The Goertz family took a much needed vacation over the weekend.

This Thursday, November 13, is the quarterly business meeting and it will be held at Glen Miller's home at Bull Run at 7:30 PM.

Keep this date in mind: The Harvest Festival, inaugurated as an annual event last year, will be held in Aims Community church on Sunday, November 23, at 1:00 PM. This is a pot-luck dinner and everyone is very welcome.

Illness has plagued the community this week with Fern Weeks ill. Alta Van Ausdell is also ill.

Too many people waste half their time finding ways to waste the other half.
