MARINERS

Much merriment was in store for members of the Mariners club when they gathered Saturday night May 9 for a Hard-Times party and scavenger hunt.

The group first met at the annex of the Community-Presbyterian church where they were divided into teams for the hunt. The team captained by Erma Boothby won first prize. Some of the items brought in by the teams included a bale of hay, live chicken, goldfish, wedding picture of the Sutherlands, two left shoes to match, and a glass Japanese float.

Grand prize for the most original costume went to Barabara Cooley. Hot dogs were served for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Oldenkamp were presented badges of membership and welcomed into the club.

During the business meeting plans for the coming street dance were discussed.

PAST NOBLE GRAND

SANDY (Special)—The Past Noble Grand club met at the home of Mrs. Alvy Lamb Monday evening, May 18 with Mrs. Art Colson and Mr. Dean Gray as co-hostesses.

At the business meeting presided over by the president, Mrs. Carl Sandstrom, it was decided to serve Strawberry shortcake to the public at the Woman's club hall June 27 and 28.

Plans were made for the PNG club to entertain the Rebekahs at the last meeting of the club before vacation on June 25.

It was decided to make 100 napkins for the IOOF home in Portland. The evening was spent in sewing on some of the napkins. Twelve members enjoyed the refreshments served by the hostess.

BULL RUN PTA

BULL RUN (Special)—The Bull Run 4H was in charge of the program at the meeting of the Bull Run PTA May 14.

New officers were installed in the PTA and plans for the annual picnic were made.

Some of the garments were modeled by the 4H. Barbara Kitchen demonstrated clothing care and Nancy Kitchen and Nancy McKinnon gave a shadow pantomime on the care of the hair. "Oregon My Oregon" and "Sing Your Way Home" were sung with the audience joining. Our PTA has adjourned until next September.
