MT. HOOD ...

BRIGHTWOOD NEWS

Mrs. O. C. Lemke of Wausau, Wisconsin who has been a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl Wilson, Brightwood is returning to her home via plane Friday night, after being extensively entertained in Portland and also by her friends on Mt. Hood. Mrs. Lemke has been here since June. Mrs. Louise Hallam entertained eight ladies at luncheon at the Mt. Hood Golf club last Wednesday, after which they played bridge. Mrs. Lemke also had lunch for eight at the club previously.

Mrs. Virginia Ferguson, entertained eight to a farm-home breakfast at her home in Brightwood. Portland and mountain friends were her guests.

Mountain Grange will have its regular social meeting this Saturday night at the hall at Sleepy Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rogan are expecting Pat's youngest brother and family from California in the near future.

Selma Wilson and Virginia Ferguson were guests with Mrs. O. C. Lemke in Portland last week. A luncheon was served on the Alameda.

There will be a no host dinner at the Mt. Hood Golf club for Mrs. O. C. Lemke on Friday night. She will leave on the midnight plane.

MARMOT...

The Sandy Palette club had the last meeting of the summer August 5. The next meeting will be September 9 when the teacher, Mrs. Ruth Lyon of Portland will return from her summer cottage in Ocean View, Washington. On the July 29 meeting the members gave Mrs. Lyon a surprise birthday party. Pansy Inman baked a most delicious birthday cake and it was served with ice cream. Each member presented the guest of honor with a handkerchief and card. Those present were Marie Thomas of Aims, Pearl Hayden, Gloria Witter, Trudy Witter, Shirley Caddy of Gresham, Edna Lawson, Naomi Bennett, Shirley Thompson, Pansy Inman, Carie Hickey of Sandy and the honored guest. The county road crew is straightening the curve in front of the George TeTnEyck farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicholson of Sandy were Tuesday supper guests of the George TenEycks.
