MARMOT...

A fitting subject for a Ralph Edwards "This is Your Life" is Stella Arnsperger of Sandy. Not only does she teach vocal and band to several of the Clackamas County Schools but she has had extensive training in art and is an expert photographer. Last Saturday evening after a most delicious dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sulzbach, guests Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vaeritti, Mr. and Mrs. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. George Ten Eyck with host and hostess had the rare treat of viewing her stereopticon slides of pictures taken in Arizona. To secure these beautiful slides, Mrs. Arnsperger walked 15 to 20 miles for days in the desert. She captured the beauty of the cactus flowers the shifting colors of the distant mountains, the vividness of the native birds and the glory of the sunsets. These Arizona slides are just one series as She has many more equally enchanting.

A Hearty Breakfast

When the men in your family demand a hearty breakfast, and even you hanker for some meat in the morning, remember your canned meats. For an eye-catching, hunger-satisfying meal, serve Deviled Ham Roll-Ups and broiled Peach Halves. Don't wait for a special occasion to serve this protein-rich breakfast. They're sure to wake up sleepy morning appetites. And it's easy as making pan cakes with your favorite mix... they're as good-tasting as they are good for you.

Your family will love the sweet-smoked flavor of Deviled Ham with their favorite pancakes.

DEVILED HAM ROLL UPS

Spread Deviled Ham generously on pancakes hot off the griddle. Roll pancakes up and place in a shallow baking pan. Heat in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 10 minutes. Better plan on "seconds" for everybody, 'cause these Roll-Ups have a way of disappearing without a trace.

BROILED PEACHES

Brush well-drained Peach Halves with melted butter or margarine. Place in a shallow baking dish under the broiler until done to a golden turn. Top with tart red jelly and arrange on serving platter with Roll-Ups.

Health Program

Mrs. Esther Perren, Health and Safety Chairman of the Sandy Business and Professional Women's Club, will be in charge of the presentation of a film secured from the Mental Health Association of Oregon when the club meets on Wednesday evening, January 20, at 7:00 PM. at the home of Mrs. Gladys Cannon on Barnsted Road.

Prior to the program a planned pot-luck dinner will be enjoyed by members and their guests.

The January business meeting was held January 6 at 8:00 PM. at the new home of Judge and Mrs. George Howeller. Mrs. Leslie Cole, cafeteria manager at Sandy Union High school, was unanimously elected to membership.

At the conclusion of the business meeting conducted by President Florence Schmitz, a program based on J. Edgar Hoover's book, "Masters of Deceit", was interestingly presented by Mrs. Esther Hoffman and Mrs. Ruth Howeller. The script was written by Mrs. Kay Clancy Metz, Director of Women's Activities of the Quaker Oats Company. Additional copies are being secured for distribution in the schools in the area requesting them.

Following a discussion of the book, a delicious smorgasbord was served by the hostess to the President, Mesdames Hoffman, Perren, Seematter, Brooke, Crutcher and Berger.

The club presented Mrs. Howeller with a surprise gift of matching brass desk tray and ash tray from India for her new home.

The Past Noble Grands Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Bina Perren next Monday, Jan. 18 at 8 pm. All members are urged to attend.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were scheduled to hold joint installation Thursday, January 14 at 8 PM.

Brides Getting Younger; 56% Age 19 or Less

"They're neither too young nor too old" rings true for Oregon brides who are marrying all the way from 15 to 76 years of age, says an Oregon State college family life specialist.

Recent figures show that out of 9661 marriages in the state, one bride was under 15 and three brides married for the first time were 75 years of age or older. On previous marriages, 15 couples were 75 or older.

Oregon marriages have become fewer in the last couple of years, but young people are marrying earlier in life, reports Mrs. Roberta Frasier, OSC extension specialist.

Both parties in the marriage union are getting younger, she continued. In the last few years, about 56 percent of the Oregon brides and 18 percent of the bridegrooms were 19 years of age or younger.

"The history of liberty is the history of limitations of governmental power, not the increase of it."
