Our very deepest sympathy goes to Irene Petrie. Mr. Petrie was a grand person and will be missed by all of his many friends.

Jane Lundeen, motored to Cannon Beach over the weekend to be with her sister Mrs. Ray Plane. There were other guests making up the party which enjoyed a turkey dinner plus all the trimmings.

Don Jones, Bluff Rd., is entertaining a broken knee cap! All Don can do is sit and watch TV-so sorry about the accident but Marge being a fine nurse will cure it soon, we hope.

Madge Riley has been ill for several weeks but is up and doing now. She says you can't keep good woman down.

The C. D. Smiths, former residents of Sandy for several years, moved some time ago to Colton where they tried a hand at farming, have moved back near Sandy-Portland. "We are not farmers," so said C. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt enjoying their nice new car. Very nice Louella!

Mr and Mrs. W. Landis, of Brightwood, entertained out of town guests over the weekend. Mrs Landis' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marrapo from Palo Alto. The four spend many hours by the fireside just visiting and watching the rain come down. Between squalls they tried to drive the folks to places of interest to show off the beauty of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Marrapo returned by plane Sunday afternoon Mr. M. said he felt like he had web feet now!

George Loomis and family have purchased a new trailer and their plans are to motor to California park and live, and just let the rest of the world go by. You nice folks will be missed.

Patty Snow enjoyed her fourth birthday to the hilt last week. Those who helped her share the big event were: Don Rhodes, June Melton, Dora Woods, Mary Hudson, John Hudson and Millie Williams. Of course no birthday is complete without the cake which they had in the shape of a pink bunny. Games were played and Patty received many nice gifts.

Ruby and John Compton celebrated Easter by first attending church then on to Portland where they enjoyed Easter dinner and the day with the parents of Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Clason. Ruby said mom's cooking is still tops.

Joyce Martin is busy as a bee sewing like mad and a part time nurse to a couple of children in bed with the measles. Come about three days, Joyce, and all the spots will vanish.

Speaking of measles another patient is David, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Neuman. When I saw him he was pretty well spotted. It won't be long until you will be back to your normal color.

Mrs. Mike Mahaffey working like a beaver on a big turkey for Easter. They were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ruedi and children.

Grandpa Henry Kautz, Sr., now out of the hospital is staying in Portland with one of his sons. We are all so glad that Grandpa is so much improved.

The Community Presbyterian Church announces that the guest speaker for the 11 o'clock morning Worship Service on Sunday, April 24 will be Mr. Douglas Van Fleet, graduate and member of the Chemistry Department of Lewis & Clark College which is a Presbyterian college. Mr. Van Fleet will present the challenge and necessity of church supported colleges.

Mr. Nevin Farmer, formerly of Estacada and attended High School there, is now home to visit his sister and brother-in-law George Schoop who lives on the outskirts of Sandy. Nevin said his trip might possibly be cut short as he can't take this "Oregon Mist". Funny man, he refers to our weather as rain?

Miss Rose Glenn from Spokane, Washington, visiting her college chum Maude Nickols. (Pete) Mr. N. said he is just tired out from listening to the old tales that are spun by the gals. They haven't seen each other for over 12 years. A lot of waier has run under the bridge in that time says I.

Mr. Joe Moody, resting at home after being in the hospital for several days. He is hobbling around the house, his sprained ankle is yet acting up. Joe says he will soon be back on the job if he has to "crawl" as his wife Ellen won't stop talking! Oh, me!

June Lang, making a lot of preparations for her most wonderful trip to Chicago. June says, "She is excited about the move, but leaves Sandy and her many friends with a lump in her throat."

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparh, parents of Mrs Albert Johns are spending a couple weeks here. They are from Seattle and formerly lived in Boring, leaving there about five years ago for Washington. And guess what? It was pouring rain then, too!

Molly Bates and June Williams are motoring next week to Los Angeles. They both plan on making their home there and going to attend a Beauty School. You gals will be missed.

Jennie Lamm entertained her sewing club at her home last week. Those who made up the group were Mrs. T. Would, Mrs. John Lang, Mrs. Peter Sahns, Mrs. D. Johnston and Mrs. W. T. Ferry. A nice luncheon was served. The gals made their Easter garments and "pretty as all get out!"

Mrs. Minnie Hodges had a group of friends in Saturday evening for a ham dinner and to play pinoche. What a fine time they all had. The winner Dorothy Miller and David Myers. Those present for the enjoyable evening were Mr.

Sandy Ridge Extension Plans Achievement Day Tea

The Sandy Ridge Extension Unit plans an Achievement Day Tea Monday, April 25th from 11:30 to 2:30 p.m. at the Kelso Grange Hall. Unit members will furnish one dozen tea sandwiches for the Tea. Program includes a style show of all finished shirt and Mrs. F. Millr, Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Horn, Mr. and Mrs. C. Merriman and Mr. and Mrs. T. Taft from Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartsch and children Donna and Pat just returned home from a grand trip. They motored to the states of California, Nevada, Utah and Montana. They have been gone for two months. Betty (Mrs. Bartsch) said, "tho they enjoyed every minute of the trip, there is no place like home."

How I would I would love to be a stowaway in the back of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hane's new blue car. They are making preparations for a nice trip to the Islands. They will be gone for several weeks. That's for me! I've always wanted to go there and "hinded" as much to Mary. All she said was, "Maybe one day you can". Nuff said!

Mrs. R Edwards leaving for Seattle where she will join her husband who just recently was sent by his firm to take over Good luck with the nice couple.

waist dresses made by members. Following the luncheon there was an election of officers: Chairman, Joan Parker; Vice chairman, Olva Cook; secretary, Darlene Quinn and treasurer, Pat Fredmore. Members participating in the Extension Sewing Class.

Ann Vo Bergen and Virginia TenEyck are in charge of all exhibit booths. All members of the district units will have booths and exhibits of completed project lessons.

The monthly May meeting will be about new fabrics. Helen McDowell, County Extension Agent, will give a lesson on new fabrics to the Sandy Ridge Extension group May 12. The Dover Unit meets with the Sandy Ridge Unit at the Kelso Grange Hall. Because of the long meeting there will be no pot-luck luncheon. All members will bring a sack lunch. Coffee and dessert will be furnished by the Sandy Ridge Extension Unit.

There will be an Officer's Tea on Tuesday, May 3rd at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Betty Denbo.

BULL RUN...

By Evelyn Nichols
The regular monthly meeting of the Bull Run Community Club has been postponed for this month. The Club will meet the second Wednesday of May at the home of Mrs. Melvin Haneberg on Phelps Rd. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Marion Darnielle. The Bull Run Club has been invited to join the A.M.S. Club for their May meeting. The A.M.S. Club is the Baker County Extension Club. We are sorry to hear of the passing away of Bud Little's mother this weekend. Also I hear that Larry Little has the measles this week. Sure have been a lot of them around.
