

Party Line

The Trail Riders, of Sandy held a pot-luck dinner at the Gun Club on Easter Sunday in the afternoon with between 20 and 25 members present.

Bill Syblon, grandson of Mrs. Norma Syblon, moved from Texas to March Air Force base near Riverside, California last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young and family of Tualatin, Mrs. Louise Young, Dick and David Lacey of Beaverton, were Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Teninty of Dover area on Easter Sunday afternoon.

David Whitlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitlock of Sandy is at home and in school this week after an appendectomy.

On Monday, April 11, the monthly fellowship dinner was held at the Tsembly of God church with approximately 125 in attendance. The ladies of the church planned and served the dinner. Speakers were Edmond Rey and Jim Davis.

The third grade Brownies of Sandy, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Swails, made Easter baskets last week from aluminum foil pie plates, crepe paper and pipe cleaner handles. They filled these with candy eggs.

The Campfire girls held their Father-Daughter banquet at the cafeteria of the Sandy grade school recently. There were about forty people present. The two groups presented a pageant of flowers with a few younger girls giving flower poems. The Campfire girls also told their Indian name they had chosen for the year and the meaning of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeryl Silver and daughters, Sandra, Zeldia and Judy spent the Easter weekend at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Snelson on their way from Albany, Oregon to Wenatchee, Washington, stopped off in Sandy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bennett and family.

Linda Dianne Curtis, born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Curtis, near Biloxi, Mississippi, on April 2 weighed in at seven pounds and five ounces. She is their first child. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Smith of Boring and Mrs. Jim Barr, also of Boring Rt.

Fred Fussell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fussell, Sandy, was at home for a short time recently on his way from Cleveland, Ohio to California.

Dinner guests at the Emil Reich home on Easter Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cline, Mrs. Lena Vetsch, Mrs. Martha Frisch, Mrs. Roy Ehn, Mrs. Erhard Ulrich and Kathleen.

Reverend and Mrs. Albert Carrow announce the arrival of their third child, Mary Lou, born April 6th in Tokyo, Japan. The Carrows returned to Japan a year ago after spending a year in the States.

The annual loyalty campaign of the Assembly of God church began on Easter Sunday as pledge day and will continue throughout the seven Sundays following. The perfect attendance Sunday beginning with April 24 and ending the seventh Sunday thereafter. Those who are present in Sunday school for all seven weeks have their pictures taken together. The pictures will be loyalty, family day, Mother's day, cradle roll day, "our class," "Our School, and "our church."

The friends to treasure are the few who "guess" it's time to go — and do.

Envoy Chosen By Auxiliary

Miss Eliese Rathjen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rathjen of Rt. 1, Sandy has been selected from the Junior class girls of Sandy Union High School to attend the 19th annual session of the Girls State to be held on the campus of Willamette University June 13 to 19th.

Girls State is a school of government sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary to give information and instruction in the affairs of our government to the young people who will be future leaders.

Cottrell Community Club is sponsoring a reception for Mrs. Ivy Vaeretti, second grade teacher at the Cottrell Grade School on Friday evening, April 29, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Vaeretti is retiring from teaching this year.

Phones Damaged By Rainstorm

Last Wednesday's pounding wind and rain played havoc with the cables of the West Coast Telephone Company in the Sandy-Bull Run area, according to Curtis L. Straw, company executive. About 100 phones were still out of order Friday morning.

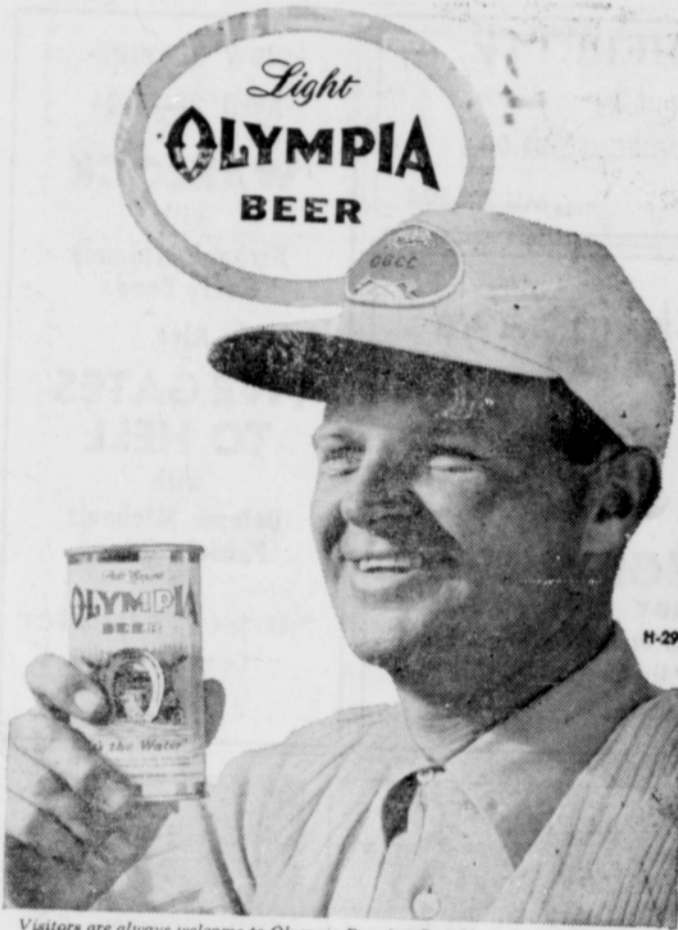

Rain soaked in the cables at four different spots and line crews worked under impossible difficulties Thursday night when they were unable to keep their shelter tents erected atop the poles in the driving wind.

Suit Brings $15,000 Award

Mrs. Joyce Brown (Burg) Groves, formerly of Sandy, was awarded a $15,000 judgment by a Clackamas County jury recently for injuries received in a car accident involving Glen Bennett of Sandy, with whom she was riding. The accident occurred about a year ago near Prineville and there was another car involved.
