

Enquist-Nilson Vows Are Made In Vancouver Rites

Mrs. Conrad E. Nilson

VANCOUVER-- Candlelight and white and pink gladioli with touches of fernery formed the setting for the exchange of nuptial vows by Miss Carolyn Kaye Enquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Enquist, and Leon Eldor Nilson, Saturday evening at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Vancouver, Washington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Nilson of Boring, Oregon.

Pastor Strain officiated at the service at which Larry Harding, soloist, presented "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". Candlelighters were Billy Enquist, cousin of the bride, and Steven Hill, cousin of the groom.

Mr. Enquist escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown was of Chantilly lace over taffeta and net. It was styled "Romance in Roses", with fingertip sleeves and scalloped neckline. The hand-made satin roses tapered from the waist down the back of the gown, which fell into full aisle train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of seeded pearls with rhinestone tips. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white orchids with purple lip surrounded by baby pink rosebuds, white carnations and stephanitis.

Mrs. Gary Youngstrom was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ernie Hoger and Karen Nilson, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaids were Cathy Enquist, sister of the bride and Elaine Nilson, sister of the groom. They were all gowned alike in orchid frosted taffeta, a molded bodice with harem skirts and cummerbunds. They wore flat bow head bands of matching orchid frosted taffeta and carried nosegays of white and orchid carnations with pink rosebuds.

The candlelighters were dressed in black robes with white collars. Little Jane Ellen Jones, flower girl, was dressed like the bridesmaids, and carried a basket of shasta daisies and pink rosebuds.

Danny Lee Enquist, 6, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Nilson was attended by his brother Gordon Nilson as best man and ushers were Norman Nilson, Jr., Lauren Hill, Melvin Nilson and Wallace Enquist, Jr., brother of the bride.

The reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's lace covered table was centered with a four-tiered cake, decorated in white, topped with a bride and groom, surrounded by a lace tulle. The bridal table was lighted with orchid tapers.

Pouring was Mrs. Curtis Johnson, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Lawrence Enquist, aunt of the bride, was at the punch bowl and cutting the cake were Mrs. James Jones and Mrs. Gertrude Olsen. Assisting at the gift table were Mrs. Ron Winkler, Joan Walker and Susan Enquist, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Carole Haynes was in charge of the guest book. Assisting at the reception were Betty Gause and Reta Enquist, cousin of the bride.

The bride changed to an orchid chiffon dress over taffeta with white accessories for the wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. She wore the white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. They will live at 7509 Virginia Drive Vancouver, Washington, upon their return.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Smith Johnson, DeLamere, N.D., grandfather of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Johnson Seattle, Washington.

The bride graduated from Fort Vancouver High School in 1957 and Mr. Nilson graduated from Sandy High School and attended Willamette University.

BULL RUN...

By Evelyn Nichols

August 9 through 14 was camptime for girls aged 9-13 at Trout Creek Camp. Boys camp ran August 14 through 19. Family Day was observed August 14 with pot-luck dinner following church and Sunday School Services.

August 19 through 21 is the date set for the P.F.C. retreat at Twin Rocks conference ground near Rockaway, Oregon. This is for all high school and college age young people. There will be Christian fellowship, Bible study, prayer time, swimming, boating and riding. Camp director is Bryce Bartruff, ALpine 2-7654.

The James Knoll family who recently purchased the Lake property in Bull Run district are certainly making improvements to the place. What with new fences and all, it looks very nice. Keep up the good work.

Our 4-H girls from Bull Run who attended camp at Silverton and school at Corvallis were Barbara Kitchen, Phyllis Hitzneroder and Janet Blevins, camp, and Ann Marie Haneberg and Mary Beehler, school. According to the letters I received, they learned many useful things and had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. George McQuinn from Bend were recent guests of the J.T. Nichols family. A picnic was enjoyed in the backyard and later in the afternoon they took a drive to the Bull Run dam. The McQuinn had 2 of their grandchildren with them.

Sunday, August 7, Portland City employees held annual picnic at Dodge Park. Conducted tours were made at the site of the new Bull Run dam, now under construction.

Mrs. Pullen Is Fair Winner

Mrs. George (Delma) Pullen Sandy grocery owner, and last year's Oregon State Fair Champion cook, walked away with the lion's share of awards for baking at the Multnomah County Fair in Gresham last week.

Mrs. Pullen entered five cakes and won sweepstakes prizes and 4 blue ribbons. Her pies took 1 blue and 1 red ribbon.

Sandy Locals

Friends of the bride and groom have been invited to attend a reception in their honor on Sunday August 21 between 2 and 5 PM. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hensley, the former Barbara Neumann of Sandy, will be the guests of honor, according to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neumann. The couple was married Saturday, August 13. Place for the reception is the Roy Hensley home, Route 2, Box 861 Troutdale, located 2 miles east of 12-mile corner, left one-half mile on Hensley Road.

About 100 old friends, some who had not seen each other for 30 or 40 years, were reunited at the Aims Community Picnic held at Dodge Park, Sunday, August 14. There were old-timers from Hogg Mill and Nettie Connett, who was the oldest guest (Nettie said she was not us. Ed.) Pot luck dinner and coffee were enjoyed.

An Old Fashioned Family Picnic is open to the public, say members of the Community Presbyterian Church. The picnic is set for right after church services Sunday, August 21, at Eagle Fern Park. Games, horseshoe pitching, softball and swimming are planned; coffee and punch will be furnished. Picnickers were requested to bring a hot dish and a salad or dessert.
