Water District Meeting Scheduled Friday: Good Crowd on Hand for Go-Kart Races

By MRS. LOUISE MAYER
DAMASCUS—A meeting on the proposed Damascus water district will be held Friday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium and an effort will be made to clear up some of the misunderstandings which have arisen.

Harry G. Smith, chairman of the Clackamas water district, and Chick Hildebrandt of the North Clackamas Chamber of Commerce, among others, will speak. The meeting is open to everyone.

Don't forget the PTA ham dinner at Damascus Union school Saturday, 5:30 to 8 p.m. "Understanding Teen-agers" will be presented by Mrs. Clifford Fosberg during the meeting of Damascus extension unit Thursday, April 20, at 10:30 a.m. in the church annex.

day stay in their cottage at Twin Rocks.

April officers for the 4th grade are president, Rodney Wagner; vice president, Neal Bialostosky; secretary, Jack Severson; librarians, Steve Stricker, Brian Kaderly and Deborah Wiley; monitors, Jeanette Kimbrell and Sharon Fugimo; room helpers, Neil Alexander and Vivian Iverson.

Fifth grade officers are president, Gary Howard; vice president, Mycelle Zinn; secretary, Bucky Eichler; and bell, Billy Heston.

Some 59 Karts participated in the Easter Trophy races at the Rev-N-Ride Kart Tracks in Damascus with 350 fans on hand.

Randy Lader won the high point trophy. Other winners were David Lee, Gary Bennet, John Ridgway, Ike Reed, Robert Ketchum, Jack Hirsh, Al Reed, Cecil Ketchum, Irwin Krueger, Bob VanBeek, Mike Iyerley, Paul Romig, Jack Lee, Norm Hess, Dick McMahon, Cliff Howard, Harry Iyerley and Bob Kellersman.

The next races will be held Sunday. Easter dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Erna Batcheller and Mrs. Emma Kumrow, were the Herbert Kumrows, Sherwood; the Delbert Batchellers, Portland; and the Ernest Batchellers.

The Ernest Batchellers recently moved to Glen Eden Beach for the summer.

Robert Ellison has returned to Sacramento, after spending a year here with the A. D. Potruff, his brother-in-law and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Schwietzer have sold their Damascus farm and will move to Molalla in June. Schwietzer is retiring from Crown Zellerbach this month.

Dr. M. Chatfield of Western Conservatory Doctors Seminary conducted Easter Sunrise services at Damascus church.

At the 11 a.m. service, babies Linda Kerli and David Benson were dedicated. During evening services receiving baptismal were Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Fosberg, Lovall VanDaam, Linda Iverson, Nancy Roh and Kenneth Brendler. Mrs. O. E. Schwietzer was at the piano.

The Club Berry Farms have taken an eight-year lease on the 86-acre farm recently purchased by Lansing Linoleum of Portland. They are planting 50 acres in cane berries and 25 acres in strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Kelley have returned home from a 10-day stay in their cottage at Twin Rocks.

Air Cargo School Held at Troutdale

An Air Cargo training school was held Tuesday at the Troutdale airport. Approximately 15 men from the Mt. Hood National Forest received instruction on how to package and air-drop forest fire supplies and equipment, Paul E. Neff, forest supervisor announced.

The men trained will be depended upon during the coming fire season to help supply fire fighters on remote forest blazes.

TRACK TEAM LOSES

Sandy lost a track meet Tuesday to Scappoose 98-24 on the Scappoose field. Next week will be the Hayward Relays at University of Oregon this weekend. Next regular meet will be Monday at Centennial high.
