SANDY PARTY-LINE

By MRS. GLENNA CONNELL MU 7-4062

About 12 persons attended the regular meeting of the Sandy Rebekah lodge on Thursday, May 25 at the IOOF hall. On the refreshment committee were Mrs. L. C. Van Ausdell, Mrs. J. E. Stromberg and Mrs. David Thomas. Reports from the State Convention in Pendleton were given by Mrs. J. E. Stromberg, Mrs. Sylvester Hall and Mrs. Roy Colson. The lodge presented a gift to Mrs. Edgar Thompson, who is the out-going district deputy of the Sandy Rebekah lodge.

On Friday, May 26, a group of ladies from Sandy Baptist chapel attended a luncheon and afternoon program at Memorial Coliseum in Portland where the Conservative Baptist association is holding its 18th Annual National Fellowship. The group included Mesdames: Jay Minyard, Thomas Hall, Byron Caldwell, John Fussell, Errett Moore, Stanley Davis, Wesley Kent and Miss Elizabeth Grover.

A number of members from the Sandy Baptist chapel were in attendance at the missionary rally Sunday afternoon, May 28, as well as at the evening service at the Portland Coliseum. Main speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Oswald J. Smith, well known missionary leader from People's Church of Toronto, Canada; while Gov. Mark Hatfield was the speaker that evening.

The annual picnic of the Sandy Palette club was held at the home of Mrs. Lillian Ten Eyck on Wednesday, May 24. Among those attending were: Mesdames Marie Thomas, Shirley Caddy, Alice Kent, Inez Howard, Gloria Witter, Gertrude Caddy, Pansy Inman, Ruth Lyon, Ruth St. Clair, Pearl Hayden, Judy Woolsey, Edna Merrill, Ida Stone, Ruth Dorman and Lolly Spofford.

After a potluck dinner some of the women went for a hike while others visited, and enjoyed the sunshine. Over last weekend Mrs. Lydia Markwart visited with her sister, Mrs. Edward Schunke in Salem. Mrs. Schunke suffered a stroke resulting in paralysis.

At Damascus--

School Budget Revised for June 12 Re-Vote:

Awards Given at Damascus School Graduation

By MRS. LOUISE MAYER

DAMASCUS — School board members met with the budget committee last week to discuss and revise the school budget which will be presented to voters again Monday, June 12.

Deleted were an extra bus, a part-time secretary and a physical education assistant. This lopped $2,200 off the budget which was turned down by voters early last month.

General fund and bond payments this year will total $71,571.50, compared to $66,235.50 last year. Without bond and interest payments, the figure to be raised by taxes this year is $41,337.30 against $44,803.78 last year.

The budget committee consists of G. W. Gorrell, chairman; Julius Bialostosky, secretary; and J. V. Gordon, William Sandstrom and V. H. Sipe. School board members are Ed Wright, chairman; Mrs. Anderson, secretary; and L. R. Keep, Carl Staats, Adolph Krause and Mas Fugimoto.

Damascus Union school held graduation exercises in the Damascus grange hall at Boring last Friday.

Rev. Walter F. Biel, pastor of Concordia Lutheran church, spoke on truth and freedom. Don Bialostosky gave the valedictory and Principal Ernest Ryan presented diplomas. Sports awards were also made.

Also participating in the program were Mrs. Thelma Sipe Jones and Nancy Sandstrom, Rev. Guilford Martin, Laberta Wagner, Dwight Fugimoto, Steve Keep, Carol Metzger, Dennis Gordon and Steve Hayley.

Teacher Stanley Rutz was given a gift by the graduates and special tributes were paid Mrs. Emma Wakefield and Mrs. Violet Kelsey.

The graduates are Patricia Benshoof, Don Bialostosky, Suzanne Brill, Gary Fosberg, Rollin Giltner, Dennis Gordon, Stephen Hayley, David Hendrickson, Gary Johnson, Karen Josefson, Carol Metzger, Denver Miller, Jonen Moore, Karen Poteet, Dennis Rogge, Nancy Roth, Patrick Sahli, Mike Severson, Bert Sold, Rex Sparks, Jane Street, Bonnie Stricker and LeBerta Wagner.

Nine of these students have attended Damascus school through the entire eight grades.

Newspaper awards — Don Bialostosky, Karen Johnson, Carol Metzger, Stephen Hayley, Jennie Moore and Gary Johnson; school patron awards, Jennie Moore, Jane Street, LeBerta Wagner, Theresa Walker, David Hendrickson, Dickie Slaughter, Gayle DeYoung, Charlene Alexander, Rex Sparks, Buddy Sold, Denver Miller, Billy Miller, Carol Metzger, Gene Mantai, Suzie Brill, Patty Benshoof, Mike Severson, Steve Hayley and Dennis Gordon.

Flag bearer awards — Dennis Rogge and Mike Severson; projectionist awards — Don Bialostosky and Dennis Rogge; rally squad awards — Bonnie Stricker, Nancy Roth, Carol Metzger and Karen Josefson; ping pong champions — Dennis Gordon and Dwight Fugimoto.

The annual school picnic held in the school house last Wednesday.

nessday had a large attendance and served as a kick off for the summer vacation. Pupils received their report cards.

Mrs. Evelyn Peterson and her 5th grade pupils gave a party for the mothers Monday and paid special tribute to room mothers Mrs. R. Stewart and Mrs. Herbert Metzger.

A Hawaiian motif was featured. The program consisted of musical selections by Karl Stein and a style show with Island costumes. Models included Judy Metzger, Linea Mantai, Billy Hesten, Jerry Houle, French Millar, Verne Medford, Mary Lynn Sahli, Nancy Carter and Adna Hoffman.

Refreshments were served by Mary Sue Stewart, Sandra Young, Jutta Block, Donna Poteet, Bruce Hoard and Paul Messer.

During the final PTA meeting of the school year, officers were elected as follows, president, Clyde Weisdorfer; vice-president, Mrs. William Sandstrom; secretary, Mrs. Rex Sparks; treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Whittelsey.

The program presented by 6th and 7th grades and teacher, Miss Barbara Kupp, consisted of three skits. Gail DeYoung had charge of the program and Carol Staats was announcer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Olav Josefson and Mrs. R. V. Giltner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pottruff have returned home from a five-day trip to Vancouver, B.C., where they visited in the home of old friends, the Clinton Webbs, the Charles Howells and the Ross Littles.

The Pottruffs stayed in a hotel and had a harrowing experience one night. Mrs. Pottruff was awakened by a key turning in their door, and she saw a man enter the room. When she screamed, the intruder left.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elliott accompanied Mrs. Agnes Warner of Vancouver on a trip to Bellingham last weekend. They visited Mrs. Warner's daughter, Carol, who graduates from Western Washington college of Education. They also toured the Lynden farm country and drove up into Canada.

Linda Lee Blake, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schwartz, is graduating from Portland Union Academy. Linda's mother was the former Barbara Schwartz Blake and attended Damascus grade and Gresham high schools.

Bill Sahli spent last week end on shore patrol duty at Sand Point NAS, Seattle, where special programs were held honoring Armed Forces day.

Adolfo C. Bardi, president of Bardi General Contractors Inc., will build a home in Damascus in the near future.

OSU GRADS
Victor Daniel Ten Eyck of Sandy and Richard Arnold Meyer of Wenme will receive degrees from Oregon State University June 5. Ten Eyck is graduating in the school of engineering and Meyer in the school of science.
