Over 200 guests helped long-time Sandy residents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carson, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. Among the guests was Mrs. Carson's mother, Mrs. Alice Davidson, 89, one of the rare mothers who get to see their daughter's golden wedding day. The Carsons used the same guest book used by Mrs. Davidson and her late husband for their golden wedding anniversary, May 25, 1910. The Carsons' wedding date barely missed falling on the same day as Mrs. Carson's parents—they were married May 24, 1911, in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Carson have one daughter, Mrs. Wallace Ohler, and one grandson, Larry Ohler, both of Astoria. (Sandy Post photo)

Party Highlights Graduation Night
By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

BORING — School's out, vacation is here, and the graduating class of Boring elementary school still talks about the grand party they had graduation night.

Ramon House, whose daughter, Linda, was in eighth grade, emceed the party and helped make it "positively outstanding." The games and mixers were such fun that the crowd didn't even have time for refreshments until much later than slated—indicating it might be well to make Mr. House's entertainment plans a tradition.

On the day she was promoted to the third grade, Becky (daughter of the Tom Telfords and only girl in a family of five boys) had a birthday party with picnic tables outdoors to serve refreshments in gala summer style.

Next door neighbors Karen Zulauf and Shirley Comer had their 6th and 11th birthdays, respectively, Monday. Karen sported a dandy red wagon after the Ross Zulauf's party for her Sunday. The A. B. Comers went roller skating at The Oaks Monday, Shirley's choice of celebration.

Caroline Gregson, down from Culver, visited friends and relatives over the Memorial day weekend.

Wayne Waugh is home from Portland Osteopathic hospital where he underwent surgery last week.

Dispatchers at the fire hall gave the office a new paint job last week, providing a finishing touch to recent improvements.

Boring Community Methodist church had its monthly potluck dinner Sunday following church services. The program afterwards had a duet by Patty Byrd and Janet Meier, violin solo by Melanie Ackerman accompanied by Mrs. Willard Boring, and piano solo by Hilde Olds. M. R. Bader received a vote of thanks for his cheerful landscaping around the church building.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Naas and Kenneth, Carl and Judy, plus friends Matthew Shields and Gerald Hale, camped at East Lake this past week. No report yet on fishing success.

Rev. John Gillespie and family have left for Alaska where they will spend the summer at a Bible camp.
