Agriculture Dept. Names Bee Inspector for Sandy

Gordon K. Kendall is serving this area as bee inspector for the State Department of Agriculture during the season. He may be reached at 4311 N.E. Alberta St. in Portland.

The department reminds bee owners that Oregon law requires annual registration of all bee colonies. Applications may be obtained from the Department in Salem, or from its representative in this area. Fees are $1 for the first six hives and 15 cents for each additional colony. Periodic inspection in this area will take place until the early fall months.

SANDY PARTY-LINE

By ALICE G. KENT MU 7-4212

Mr. and Mrs. George Pullen returned May 24, from an almost month long vacation trip which took them to Lubbock, Tex. where they spent a week with their daughter, Mrs. James Manire and family.

On the return trip they toured the scenic spots of Pikes Peak, Colorado Springs, Colo., Las Vegas and Reno, Nev. and Yellowstone park in Wyoming. They visited Mrs. Pullen's aunt, Mrs. Frank Frizzell, in Nampa, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sutherland entertained member of the elementary school faculty at a noon luncheon in their home May 29. A farewell gift was presented to Donald Hancock who is the only member leaving the group this year.

John Sulzbach of San Francisco, Calif., visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sulzbach over Memorial Day weekend.

Mrs. A. D. Benshoof and children, Pam, Timmy and Tommy are visiting Mrs. Benshoof's sister Mrs. Clarence Doke at Mt. Shasta, Calif. She will be joined there by son, John Russell.

Mrs. Ivan Barker accompanied her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Goldabina as she returned to Drain, after a month's stay with the Barkers.

Billy, Johnny, Martha and Jannie Howard, children of Mrs. Eleanor Howard, Hood River, spent last weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ten Eyck attended the graduation exercises of Tommy Gougar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Gougar, at Central Catholic school in Portland on Sunday, June 4.

John Fussell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fussell, accompanied Richard Strait, former head basketball coach at Sandy high school, when he left for Fairbanks, Alaska May 29.

Women of the Sandy Baptist Chapel Missionary group met last Thursday for an all-day work meeting. They sewed quilt blocks.

Those attending the annual Sweetheart banquet from Sandy Baptist chapel included: Misters and Mesdames Ray Stonehocker, Clarence Bennett, Henry Whitlock, Carroll Chambers, Errett Moore, Byron Caldwell, Bert Waibel, S. Penrose, Jay Minyard, John Fussell and Mrs. Robert Sandercock. The banquet took place at the New Cathay Chinese restaurant in Portland.

The John M. Gillespie family left by car May 24 for Anchorage, Alaska where they will spend two months at Victory Bible Camp and also attend the annual missionary conference, June 15-22. Gillespie is general director of Arctic Missions, Inc.

Judge George Howeiler attended the convention of Alumni Association of the Washington State School for the Blind at Vancouver this last weekend. Judge Howeiler is president of the association and gave a special award during one of the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Osterbach and Julie returned last Friday from San Luis Obispo, Calif. where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Murray. They were sorry to miss the June 17 graduation of Ron from California State Polytechnic college.

The meeting with Rev. and Mrs. H. Gear will continue at the Sandy Assembly of God church through Sunday evening, June 11. Tonight, Thursday, a chalk artist from Portland will be featured.

New Member Joins Sandy BPW Group

A new member joined the Sandy Business and Professional Women's club at the group's meeting May 31 at the home of Mrs. Edward Schmitz. Mrs. Ollie Kanak has just moved to the community from Los Angeles where she recently retired after 40 years as pay master of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company.

Auditing committee appointed at the meeting is composed of Mrs. Wilbur "Pete" Sulzbach, Mrs. Merle Martin and Mrs. Marie Seematter. Mrs. Sulzbach will hostess the organization's annual picnic at her home in Marmot July 19.

The next meeting of the BPW is June 21 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Brook, 2615 NE Clackamas, Portland, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

State Department Offers Foreign Service Jobs

Those who did not seek personal interviews during the January State Department campaign for clerks and secretaries are reminded they may still apply.

Foreign Service basic requirements are a minimum age of 21, a high school graduation certificate or its equivalent, office experience, excellent health, and American citizenship for at least five years. Applicants must be single, with no dependents, and available for any post in the world according to the needs of the service.

Basic requirements for Departmental positions are a minimum age of 18 years, good health, and American citizenship for at least five years. Applicants must be single, with no dependents, and available for any post in the world according to the needs of the service.

Detailed information may be obtained by writing to the Employment Division of the Department of State, Washington 25, D.C.

Scholarships Awarded To Eastmont Students

Scholarships to Portland State College have been awarded to nine Eastmont-area high school graduates.

Included are Karen H. Clark, Katheryn M. Janssen and Connie R. Kirkpatrick of David Douglas; Beverly Drew of Sandy; James R. and Robert H. Ellis of Corbett; Casey C. Fast and Christine Olson of Gresham; Joy Kieske of Centennial.

OFFICER NAMED

Appointment of Fred M. Siefert as general manager of Northwest Nut Growers was announced by Harold Quick, president of the marketing cooperative. Siefert has been associated with Northwest Nut Growers since his release from the Army in 1943, working his way up through all phases of the organization. In 1958 he was appointed Assistant General Manager working with sales and management. He succeeds the late Nathan Belcher who held this position since 1951.

Women's Club Installs Officers

New officers were installed by the Sandy Women's club at its final meeting of the club year last week. Mrs. David Wienecke is the new president. Serving with her are: Mrs. Howard Berger, vice - president; Mrs. Owen Bignall, secretary; Mrs. Lewis Hall, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Limbaugh, historian, and Mrs. S. R. Harper, Mrs. John Griffith and Mrs. Charles Frasier, trustees.

Installing officers were Mrs. Ed Bruns and Mrs. Charles Croston. The new leaders were presented corsages by Mrs. Bruns.

Mrs. R. S. Hall, immediate past president, presented outgoing officers with gifts of iris bulbs with blooms from her garden. Mrs. Hall received a gift certificate from Marx Gardens.

Three new members were welcomed into the club: Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. Richard Ilige and Mrs. Henry Perret.

Members discussed purchase of a new flag for the hall and Mrs. Wienecke conducted an idea session for programs and projects for next year.

The library report, submitted by Mrs. Lois Shearman, librarian, showed a May circulation of 880 books. Fifteen volumes were added by gift and purchase during the month. Recent guests at the Sandy library were groups of children from the second grade and from kindergarten, who were interested in learning more of library functions.

Mrs. Pansy Inman, member of the reception committee, welcomed the members. Hostesses for the potluck luncheon were: Mrs. James Duff, Clyde Sutherland and Mrs. E. M. Smitz.
