By MRS. ALICE G. KENT MU 7-3641

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of Crescent City, Cal. visited at the homes of Jones mother, Mrs. Florence Hite and sister, Mrs. Rosa German.

A picnic on Sunday, July 2, at the John Teninty home, brought together relatives and friends including: Mr. and Mrs. James Teninty and son, Jimmy, Hollywood, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muelhauser, Portland; Mrs. Ralph Young and Mr. and Marine Pvt. Robert J. Schoenbut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Schoenbut of 2711 SE 154th, completed four-week individual combat training course, July 7, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Mrs. Dick Lacy, Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snow and daughter, Robin, Thermopolis, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ross, Oregon City and the Robert Sanderecock family, Sandy.

Virginia Larson of LSalle, Colo. has spent a month with her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Davenport.

Mrs. Marcus Eggers with daughter, Mrs. Hugh Moore, Portland, vacationed several days in Victoria, B.C. While there, they stayed at the famous Empress Hotel. Of special interest was their visit to Butchart's Gardens which was originally a gravel pit; but has been converted into sunken gardens of such unusual beauty that it has attained world-wide recognition.

Fourth of July guests at the Ivan Barker home were Barker's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramstead, Blake and Karen of Oswego and nephew Gerry Barker and wife, Nancy, Portland. They were entertained at a barbeque which started outside but ended in the house as it started to rain.

The Rainbow Girls met at the Masonic Temple last Thursday, where they prepared 113 quarts of frozen jam for the Shriner's hospital. Future plans include the canning of carrots and applesauce.

Rev. and Mrs. Neuenfeldt and family spent last week at the home of Mrs. Neuenfeldt's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Danielson at Lyons.

Mrs. William G. Cochran was honored at a post nuptial shower at the home of Mrs. John Fussell, Friday evening, July 7. Present were: Mesdames Charles Cochran, R. Brewer, Stanley Davis, John Teninty, Ault Moore, Norma Syblon, Earl Mitchell, Russell Winchester, Don Hubbard, Herbert Sanderecock, Robert Sanderecock, Zeri Silver and Miss Elizabeth Grover. Mrs. Silver led the devotions.

The Bethanians, a musical group from Bethany Bible college, Santa Cruz, Cal. brought a fine program to the Assembly of God church on Thursday evening, July 6. Included were vocal and instrumental numbers.

Members comprising the group were: Lyle Sherlock, Wayne Wall, Neva Walker, Priscilla Wilson—Phil Young and Rev. David Paco, a native Hawaiian. Rev. Paco sang a hymn and also delivered the message of the evening. The young folks were entertained overnight at the homes of A. W. Dyal, and Andrew Connell and Rev. Turnbull.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattox and son, Harold Lee of Hermiston spent a week at the home of Mattox's sister, Mrs. Stanley Davis, also visiting other relatives in the vicinity.

About 35 persons gathered for a family reunion at the Stanley Davis home on the Fourth of July. This is an annual affair and included folks from Portland, Oregon City, Beaver Creek, Hermiston and Sandy.

The Clyde Sutherlands returned Sunday from a trip which took them to several mid-western states including Elgin, N.D., Mrs. Sutherland's childhood home, where her brother had planned a get-together of 61 friends and relatives.

At Dickinson, State Teacher's college, they renewed acquaintance with former professors and teachers. They visited their son, Robert and family in Wayne Neb., where Robert is an instructor at the State Teachers college.

Mrs. Gary Howden and daughter Wendy of Kennewick, Wash., are spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sutherland.

Mrs. Dale Quinn and daughter, Linda spent a week and a half with Mrs. Quinn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Stoddard and other relatives at Shively, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Erret Moore and family returned Sunday from a nine day trip which took them to Priest River, Ida., where they visited Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holman.

In Pinehurst, Ida., they attended prayer meeting in the church where Mr. and Mrs. Moore were married 20 years ago. While there a barbeque was prepared in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Troesch. They also visited with Moore's father, W. A. Moore at Troy, and his brothers' families.

The Community Presbyterian church in cooperation with the Migrant Ministry of the Oregon Council of Churches has undertaken to bring Bible teaching, recreation and craft work to migrant children and young folks at Sandy Farms and B D & F camps.

Mrs. Sarah Hall Goodwin, director of the Migrant Ministry has been coordinating the work with the assistance of some folks from the Parkrose Congregational church. Last week a film was shown due to rainy weather. There was a Thrift Sale and another will be held next week; as well as a pink and blue shower at B D & F camp.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs picnic held at Pioneer Park Sunday did not have as large an attendance as expected, but a very pleasant afternoon was spent renewing friendships and of course, eating good food.

Out of town visitors there were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Markvardson, Cannon Beach; Emma Douglas, Estacada; Mrs. Charles Butler and children, Oregon City and Mrs. Butler's mother, Mrs. Mary Dorian who is visiting here from England.

At Boring--

Members of Boring Rebekah Lodge recently honored Mrs. Adolph Kotzman of Sandy who has been elected Chairman of District No. 1 convention. Visitors from 12 lodges attended.

Mrs. Walter Markham seated the officers as Mrs. Ruth Skidmore provided the marching music. Mrs. Rena Manary presented a bouquet of roses to the new chairman and was then inducted into the lodge as the only past chairman of District No. 1 from the Boring Lodge. She was presented a corsage fashioned by Mrs. Noma Waugh.

The program consisted of accordion solos by Carol Meier, readings by Mrs. Mel Richey, and piano solos by Mrs. Skidmore. Mrs. Milton Layng was chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mesdames Madeline Telford, Robert Proctor, Albert McLean, Otis Rich, H. C. Compton, and Jim Knox.

In charge of gift presentations were Emma Alm, Lucille Hilliard, and Margaret Anderson. Mrs. Otis Rich was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. H. C. Compton arranged the floral decorations for the tea table. Chairmen for the event were Mrs. Markham, Mrs. W. D. Clark and Mrs. Earl Meier.
