At Boring--

Picnics Feature Late-Summer Fun in Boring Area:
Exchange Student Arrives Here From GermanyBy MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

BORING—Picnics were the order of the day last Sunday. Boring Community Methodist church and Sunday school had its homecoming picnic at Eagle Fern Park, following church services. Following a memorable potluck dinner, there was swimming followed by a grown-ups vs. children softball game—which ended in a tie.

The local square dance group, Country Cutups, had an old-fashioned picnic Sunday at Wilseda Park, Carver. Each family brought its own food and everyone ate together. There were games with prizes, softball, swimming, and an hour of square dancing on the park's cemented area. This is the first of planned annual events. The club has announced it will have live music for its anniversary dance, Sept. 16 at the club hall.

The Melville Richeys and children, Melva, Myrna and Bobbie, went to a family reunion at the Hillsboro home of the Ernest Zimmermans. Potluck dinner was served.

Student Arrives

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ackerman of the community church added another member of their family last Thursday evening when exchange student Christiana Clos of Hanover, Germany, arrived to spend the next nine months with them.

In three days, she had sampled eight entirely new foods, had her first horseback ride, and played her first game of softball. These newcomers to our land are enviously flexible, eager, charming.

The Ackermans also had guests from Brentwood, Cal., Dr. and Mrs. Ray Davis and Mrs. Davis' mother.

Mrs. John Hegstrom received four lawn chairs from Society Linnea, members of which she entertained at a picnic last week at her home. She served smorgasbord with her homemade orange rye bread, an annual feature of this event which she has held for the past five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gregson and family came to Boring to visit relatives and friends last weekend.

During this hot weather the Boring volunteer firemen have been on the jump putting out grass, brush and building fires. But this week they had a first! They'd never before been called to get a kitten out of a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Higginbotham have moved into their new home on Church road.

John Olds' brother, Howard Olds of Milwaukee, brought the family a mess of rainbow trout which the family enjoyed this week.

Now for final results of the Clackamas county fair news: Jean Moore took six blue and three red ribbons for cakes, a pretty impressive record for one homemaker, we think.

Win Awards

The Arnold Moore's 4-H cattle club ran up a fine record, as follows:

Dairy animals: Carol Meier, blue for brown swiss calf and junior champion on calf; Janet Meier, senior champion and grand champion on brown swiss cow, blue on calf and blue on daughter and dam; Marijane Meier, blue on junior cow; Connie Moore, blue on heifer; Gary Moore, blue on heifer, blue on cow, blue on daughter and dam; Linda Moore, white on jersey cow; Jimmy Boring, blue on heifer; Tom Karlen, red on heifer; Sharon Gantenbein, blue on calf; Gerald Stomps, blue on calf; Randy Proctor, red on heifer. The club took second place in herdsman'ship.

Results in style review list Judy Gregson champion, to represent the county in the state fair, in Sun and Fun 4-H Sewing. Reserve champion is Janet Meier. Myrna Richey is champion in the Charmingly Yours division, also going to the state fair with Roberta Rolli, reserve champion.

Helen Irwin, third grade teacher at Boring Elementary school, took a blue ribbon at the Multnomah county fair for knitting and a red at Clackamas.

Mrs. John Olds won a red ribbon for a mosaic, judged upside down!

Del Glover and Mrs. Glover have joined their son, Mike, visiting the Norman E. Glovers until September.

The A. B. Corners are painting their home in a handsome new two-tone combination this week.

The Charles Thorntons have been entertaining many guests. Monday, their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of Lincoln, Neb., and children, Kenneth and Deanne, departed after several days' visit. They planned to stop at the Thornton's daughter's home in Pasco, Wash. Sunday, the whole group went to Mt. Hood, rode the ski lift and picnicked at Clear Lake.

The George Isemingers from Spokane also visited the Thorntons last week as did Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson of Portland.

Recent tests by home economists show that the cheapest way to remove overall grayness and stains in white cotton towels is to use liquid chlorine bleach with all-purpose detergent.

Library Moves
To New Location

Temporary headquarters of the Gresham branch library opened yesterday at 223 N. Main after a one-day move from the library building. Work is to begin immediately on remodeling which eventually will increase library capacity from 3,500 to 7,700 books.

Supervised by Miss Martha Hansen, director of the Multnomah county library extension center, station wagons were used to move books the two blocks.

Pages from the extension center assisted.

Mrs. Sunny Alice Fromm is librarian in the temporary location, replacing Mrs. Frank Gilmore who will be working in the extension center.

Hours will remain the same: Monday-Thursday, 1-9 p.m.; Friday, closed; Saturday, 10-5:30 p.m.
