

Boring Thimble Club Wins Honors

The Nimble Thimble Sewing Club of Boring grade school is especially proud of its showing at the County and State Fairs this year.

The Clackamas County Fair brought pink ribbons for all the first year girls, who are Nancy Althaus, Fern Douglas, Connie Moore, and Clara Salyers. Each of the second year girls received blue ribbons. They are Sharon Gantenbein, Marsha Gordon, Karen Karlen, Mary Lou Karlen, and Corinne Nishikawa. Mary Lou was selected reserve champion while Karen was selected for State Fair also.

At the State Fair both Karen and Mary Lou won blue ribbons. Leaders of the first and second year groups are Mrs. Gay Zimmerman, Mrs. John Gantenbein, and Mrs. Emil Karlen.

Baptists Observe Year-End Activities

The end of the church year will be observed by the First Baptist Church, Sunday, Sept. 24. This is Promotion Day when Sunday School members will move up to new departments for next year.

New Sunday School officers and teachers are being elected to handle the current and anticipated growth of the church. Mrs. Oscar Guthu, present Sunday School Superintendent has been elected to serve again next year.

All churches in the Southern Baptist Convention territory will observe Preparation Week Sept. 17-24 for the coming year. Each year a study book is presented to meet the challenge of the year ahead. This year the recommended book is "The Ministry of Visitation" by John T. Sisemore.

Sandy Witnesses Attend Assembly

Ray King, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced that all meetings normally scheduled this weekend at Kingdom Hall will be canceled in favor of the semiannual circuit assembly in Portland September 22-24.

Some 75 Sandy Witnesses and friends will attend with over 2,000 others from the Tualatin Valley and Portland.

King said: "All Witnesses and their families expressed eagerness to attend these specialized training sessions in advanced Bible teaching methods."

Edgar C. Kennedy, traveling representative for the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society, will deliver the keynote address and conduct the Ministry School, which will serve as a model for the local school held weekly in the Sandy Kingdom Hall.
