4-H Round-Up

The Mt. Hood Even Stitcheers celebrated the holiday season with a Christmas party at a meeting Dec. 19. Joanne Stienhager and Sheila Mathews led the girls in games and singing. Jennifer Ruegg and Joanne brought the refreshments of punch and cookies.

Leader Mrs. Mitchell gifted each girl with a flower and a candy cane. She also checked their work that day.

At the Dec. 12 meeting the girls worked on their head scarves.

December is a much needed month for the county 4-H office. It is the only month not packed with 4-H activities, which gives us time to work on files, program planning, and catching up with fall orders for club materials.

Folks Gather
For Holidays

By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

Family gathering marked the holiday weekend, too. The Harry Johnsons had their son, Bill, home from the hospital three days at Christmas, though he expects to spend another month there upon his return. Bob Johnson, MA3, also was home with 25 days' leave granted from his post at the Naval Air Station, North Island, San Diego.

Miss Edith Anderson spent Christmas at the home of her sister, Mrs. Esther Hanna, Portland.

The retired postmistress, Miss Ma's Humphrey, was here visiting friends as the holiday approached.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bader had a memorable Christmas, as children, grandchildren and great grandchildren convened at their home. Their son, M Sgt. Loren W. Bader, and his wife and three children of Epirata, Wash., were here Christmas day. Their daughters, Mrs. Floyd Florey and Mrs. Howard Gordon, also were present, along with husbands and children. And their granddaughter, Mrs. Marilyn Decker came with her three children. Marilyn's husband is still stationed in Germany and Marilyn came home last summer and welcomed her baby in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Layng and their son, Danny, went to Mrs. Layng's mother's home for Christmas. Mrs. Carrie Layng at Cottage Grove, thus had all but one of her six children home for the holiday, and the last, a daughter, arrived the day after Christmas.

At Boring—

The Boring Volunteer Fire department marked Christmas by distributing Christmas baskets to 22 less-fortunate families.

Collection of foodstuffs had been made at the Boring school and in local business establishments, and money donations made it possible to buy toys for the children. Hazel Hite, a dispatcher at the station, helped coordinate work when distribution was done. Four or five carloads of these firemen delivered the baskets before Christmas Eve.

Mrs. J. R. Lunday, with the assistance of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lydia Lunday, had as Christmas guests her two sons and their families. These were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lunday and daughter of Gresham, and Mr. and Mrs. Linden Lunday and children of Troutdale.

Travels To Tacoma
Hazel Hite, dispatcher at the volunteer fire department, spent the weekend with her brother and his family at Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich had as guests Christmas Eve their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. David Naas of Vancouver, Wash.; their daughter-in-law's mother, Mrs. Helen Walling of Vancouver, and Mrs. Rich's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Altwasser of Portland.
