Coach Ross gives pep talk before Benson Sandy game.

Carl Aschoff scored basket in Benson Sandy game.

Sandy Drops 3rd Game of Season

Sandy high dropped its third basketball game of the season at Battleground, Wash., last Friday. The score was 40-43 as the Tigers revenged their 41-43 loss to Sandy's Pioneers earlier in the week.

Sandstrom was high for Sandy with 14, the only Pioneer to hit the double figures, Russell, Nichols, and Emerson followed with 7, 6, and 5. A 15-18 half-time score against the Pioneers began to look pretty small as the Sandytites hammered away at the Tigers' lead, once cutting it down to one point.

The home team led throughout the entire second half, and smothered a brilliant Sandy rally in the final seconds. Sandy has now won one and lost three in pre-season play.

The JV's dropped their game also by a 30-45 margin. Chuck Croston was high scorer for Sandy.

The rookie Pioneers were defeated by Oregon City to a ferocious 17-55 tune. Robert Smith and Harold Hutchins managed to scratch out four points each to lead the Sandy team.

The team had a brand new rally squad for the game - freshmen Sally Amstead, Nancy McKinnon, and Cheryl Hames. They were outfitted in black skirts and bright red blouses.

Sandy Wins Over Gophs

A 21-point outburst by Tom Owens wasn't enough Tuesday night as the Sandy Pioneers of the Wilco league upset Gresham, 59-55, in pre-season hoop action at Sandy.

The game was nip-and-tuck all the way but the Pioneers had a little the best of the last two quarters. Scores at the stops were 15-12, Sandy, 28-27 Gresham and 41-39 Sandy.

The count was deadlocked at 49-all with five minutes left, but the Pioneers used their height advantage to pull away.

Although Owens led both teams in scoring, big Carl Sandstrom had 16 for the losers and Dan Nichols 15. The summary:

Gresham 55 - Owens 21, Anderson 6, Milne 7, Carlson 6, Christie 10, Ray 5.
 Sandy 59 - Nichols 15, Carpenter 4, Sandstrom 16, Russell 5, Hoffman 10, Emerson 2, Barden 7.
