At Boring— Graves Family Moves to Bend

By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929
BORING — Mr. and Mrs. Graves left Boring Saturday to take up permanent residence in Bend, where Graves' firm relocated recently. Last Thursday, Mrs. Ruth Jones was hostess at a coffee honoring Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. John Hegstrom entertained the Helping Hands club last week at its annual Christmas gift exchange and introduction of "secret pals." Members were happy to greet Mrs. C. R. Zulauf Sr., who underwent surgery last month and was on her first outing after leaving the hospital.

Sale Successful
Cathy Valberg and Janet Meier headed a bake sale for Sandy High Pep club at the Boring general store early this month. The girls did a land-office business for their organization.

Sarah Urquhart, daughter of the John Urquharts, is still in the hospital with an infection in her neck.
Mr. and Mrs. Lester Irvin celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary the end of last month. They had dinner out with their children, including Mr. and Mrs. Arlow Irvin, Kurt and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Irvin, Denise and Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strous, Larry and Janice. Mrs. Strous is the Irvins' daughter. Following dinner, all spent the evening at the Strous home.

A son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Crane of Ashland, and their children Karen and Stevie, were unable to attend.

Nelson Re-elected
Ed Nelson was re-elected director of the Boring Volunteer Fire Dept. last week. Working on the election board were Mrs. Otis Rich, Hazel Hite and Mrs. Lester Irvin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Compton were visited Sunday by their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Compton and two sons of Canby.
Mrs. John Hegstrom, Hil-dur Hegstrom and Jim Olds visited Mrs. Fred Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Al Larson Sunday in Salem.

Hazel Hite reports the fire department office is going to be redecorated, with a color called "gypsy moth!"

At Orient— Students Slate Yule Program

Orient grade school students will present their annual Christmas program Thursday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m. The public is invited to the operetta in the East Orient school auditorium.

Mrs. Marian Boettcher, music teacher at the Orient schools, has chosen the play, "Santa and the Spaceman," as this year's offering. Students from the fourth and fifth grades will participate.

In addition to the half-hour play, the beginning choir and the advanced choir will perform, under direction of Mrs. Boettcher. Charles Allen will direct the advanced band.
There is no admission charge.

Awards Given

Also Kurt Benson, Masa Miyake, Curt Lofstedt, Greg Bell, Dain Lauderback, Robert Fisher, Dan Pierce, Glen Carlson, Roger Shirley, Ray Congdon and Conrad Caldwell.

Mrs. Rita Rogers, girls' volleyball coach, presented awards to Betty Boone, Priscilla Wright, Julie Weberg, Mary Tomlin, Jean Ross, Karen Okino, Pam Knapp, Donna Johnson, Linda Haskett, Cathy Cross, Peggy Bradley and Karen Bergh.
