

Ivory Coast Missionary Speaks At Community Church Service ; Volunteer Fire Department Assists Needy

By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

BORING — Miss Melba Means, missionary to the Ivory Coast of Africa, told about her work in a world typified by the word "change" Sunday at the morning service of Boring Community Methodist church. She was introduced by Mrs. Melville Richey.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ackerman and daughters Candace and Melanie made a quick trip to San Francisco to visit a son-in-law, daughter and granddaughter.

Mrs. Byrdette Byrd is in the hospital for observation.

Mrs. Byrd was hostess to family and friends Christmas Day. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rich and three children of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Rich and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rich and three children, Susan and Patty Byrd, Mickey Byrd (up from California for the holidays), David Naas and Jerry Miller.

Mrs. Norval Naas is recuperating from an attack of laryngitis. She had Christmas dinner for 25 persons, including relatives visiting from California.

Bonney Shields returned to her teaching position in Eugene this week after spending better than a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shields.

Firemen Busy

The Boring Volunteer Fire Dept. did its usual fine Christmas work this holiday and provided the makings for dinner and gift distribution for 23 needy families in the area.

It was no holiday for the volunteer firemen in other ways, for they helped out on the Sandy fire, went to a flu fire at Eagle Creek, twice to a flu fire at Mrs. Greta Albel's home of 212, to a trailer house fire on Barnes and Collier roads, to an automobile fire and to a first aid call on a car wreck.

These men receive no pay for their work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Peterson and son Rick returned Saturday after a week's vacation with their son, Capt. Fred Peterson, in California. Art Port-is and John Urganhart worked alternate shifts for Peterson, who is Boring fire marshal.

Alexanders Visit

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Alexander and family of Madras spent several days here with her mother, Mrs. Beulah Dayton. "Buzz" Alexander is a former fireman here. Christmas Day they had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Don Dayton and family in Gresham.

When the Alexanders returned home, Mrs. Beulah Dayton and a daughter of the Vernon DeYongs went to Madras for a visit. The Vernon DeYongs made a round trip to bring the daughter and Mrs. Dayton home to Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gregson and family visited his mother, Mrs. Delores Gregson, during the week. They now live in Roosevelt, Wash.

Christmas program at Boring school before vacation was directed by Mrs. Frances Denney and was divided in four parts: "The Littlest Angels," "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer," "Christmas Gaiety" and "Christ is Born."

The Christmas program of the choir at Boring Community Methodist church was titled "Night of the Star." Soloists included Mrs. Norval Naas, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Patty Byrd, Mrs. Ruth Skidmore. A special trio featured Mrs. Oscar Cowan, Mrs. Melville Richey and Mrs. Ruth Skidmore. Mrs. Willard Boring is organist and choir director.
