

At Boring— Boring Church Plans Potluck

By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

BORING — Sunday the Boring Community Methodist church will have its first potluck dinner of the new year, following regular church services. The serving committee will include Mrs. Helen Irwin, Mrs. Delores Gregson, Mrs. John Hegstrom, Miss Hildur Hegstrom and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Olds.

Mrs. Mildred Carlin and Mrs. Zara Richey were both hospitalized recently with illness. At the time of this writing, Mrs. Richey has returned home and Mrs. Carlin is expected shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartelmay of Rt. 3 are proud grandparents of a new grandson, Edward Wayne, born the first day of this year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Ed Bartelmay, and father, who is an airman, is stationed in Nancy, France. This is the Bartelmay's 11th grandchild.

Boy Recovering
First grade student Jimmy Gerkhe is still recuperating from injury received when an arrow hit an eye, shortly after Christmas. It is expected he will be able to return to school some time this month.

Mrs. Matt Shields reported on pending legislation affecting education at a meeting of teachers' honorary society, Delta Kappa Gamma Saturday at the Anchorage. Speaker of the day was Mrs. Paula Holmes, whose topic was women artists. "Health in Our Community" was topic at a meeting of the Boring Parent Teacher Assn. earlier this month. Principal Norval Naas spoke briefly on reorganization. Mrs. Gaye Zimmerman presided and Mrs. C. H. Lehr read minutes of the previous meeting while Mrs. Harvey Hanson made the treasurer's report.

Honored guests included Mrs. G. Götman, Mrs. Arno Ritter, Mrs. Delores Gregson, Mrs. Clayton Bjork, Mrs. Don Verdoorn and Mr. Carlin.

Bloodmobile Due
The Bloodmobile will be at the Boring Volunteer Fire department from 7 to 9 p.m. Jan. 28. Firemen's wives will serve coffee, punch, and cookies. According to Fire Marshal Ollie Peterson, anybody in the district is welcome to draw on this blood bank by contacting the fire department.

The fire department has been quite busy the past week. Men responded to a first aid call Jan. 14 at Boring road just north of Kelso road. Mrs. Eve Kociemba was driver of one car and Arlo Meyer of the second car. One passenger in the Meyer car received a broken nose.

On the 18th, first aid crew treated Jim Knierem of Corbett, who received a broken leg while unloading lots at the Harris mill.

On Jan. 17, Boring sent a pumper and tanker to the Estacada fire under mutual assistance and on Sunday, responded to a call for aid on a controlled fire in the canyon.

Last week, Mrs. Norval Naas entertained the Boring Methodist Church WSCS. Ladies prepared Valentine Day tray favors for a convalescent home and had devotions.

She is survived by her husband Glen and two children, Francis G., of Portland, and Mrs. Fern Simon of Milwaukee, and four grandchildren. Rev. Glenn A. Waltman conducted services at the Bateman Funeral Chapel Saturday, with burial at Forest Lawn cemetery.
