Bake Sale in Boring

By MRS. JOHN OLDS MO 5-6929

BORING — The Mothers' March of Dimes here has taken on a new look this year with a Bake Sale Benefit scheduled for this Saturday, 2 p.m. at Boring General store. According to Mrs. Otis Rich, working on arrangements, all donations of money or food will be appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Odell welcomed twins earlier this month and named the new children Ronnie and Connie. After leaving the hospital, Mrs. Odell spent some time with relatives in Portland recuperating.

Following morning services Sunday, members of the Boring Community Methodist church had their January potluck dinner. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Delores Gregson, Mrs. Helen Irwin, Mrs. John Hegstrom, Hildur Hegstrom and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Olds. A business meeting was held afterwards, and tentative plans for building a new church were discussed.

Teachers Gather
Damasus school faculty were host group to the North Clackamas unit of the Oregon Education Assn. last week. Mrs. Louise Shields of Boring presided at the session which dealt with sanctions and pensions. Others from Boring who attended included Mrs. Helen Irwin, Mrs. Martha Butler, Raymond Gran.

Mrs. Ernest Amsberry, a former resident of Boring, recently visited Mrs. Lucy Boring, Mrs. Nellie Lund, Mrs. Otis Rich and Mrs. Hattie Turner here. She also called on Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell.

Rodney Maulding, home on leave from the Marines, is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffmeister. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Maulding, now in Germany with the army.

Sunday Guests
Sunday dinner guests at the Otis Rich home included Mr. and Mrs. Glen Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Altwasser of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Kastan and Miss Edith Anderson.

Mrs. Arnold Moore Sr. is now home from the hospital. Mrs. John Day has returned home after a visit last month with relatives in California.

Trip South
The John Kastons also visited in California recently, staying with their son Donald Lund and family in Whittier.

Boring Rebekah Lodge held open installation earlier this month with Mrs. Oscar Cowan, district deputy, and her installing officers officiating.

The roster included Mrs. Earl Meier, past Noble Grand; Mrs. W. D. Clark, noble grand; Mrs. Wayne French, vice grand; Mrs. Helen Irwin, warden; Mrs. Helen Gottman, flag bearer; Mrs. Albert McLean, conductor; Mrs. Walter Markham, chaplain; Mrs. Gordon Skidmore, musician; Mrs. Earl Clark, inside guardian; Mrs. Emil Johnson, outside guardian.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Skidmore was given a money tree tribute for her faithfulness as musician for the lodge. Mrs. Melville Richey entertained with a reading.

Previously, the lodge entertained Mrs. Selma Watkins, president of Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Florence Ball, warden, and Mrs. Pearl Eldridge, community service chairman.

Party Set
At its Feb. 7 meeting, the Rebekah group will have a party to reveal Secret Sisters. Arrangements were formulated at the meeting held last week and conducted by new Noble Grand Mrs. W. D. Clark. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tom Telford and Mrs. Peggy Clark.

The Clackamas County Health department is conducting a clinic today, Thursday, at Boring school and offering free smallpox vaccinations to families in this area as part of a community health project, according to Principal Norval Naas.

Members of the Boring Volunteer Fire department worked valiantly when their fellow volunteer, assistant Fire Chief, Robert Rykken, had his home burn last week. The fire was so fierce, firemen were fortunate to save Rykken's father's home nearby, although the younger family suffered a total loss of property.

The Frank Seifers of Sherwood visited Mrs. Delores Gregson Sunday.
