

At Damascus— Benefit Dance Aids Families

DAMASCUS — The benefit dance held for the Art and Robert Rykken families at Damascus Grange hall Feb. 16, was a huge success according to V. H. Souders, master of ceremonies.

The music was furnished by Bill McFarland's Oldtimers.

The home ec club of Damascus Grange presented two hand made quilts and two pillows to the young Rykkens, Robert and Linda.

Pie and coffee were served all evening by committee chairman Mabel Wescott assisted by Mrs. F. E. Gergen, Mrs. Walter Schubert and Helen Schubert with help on the clean up by Mrs. Erna Batchelder and Mrs. George Doney. Jay Wescott and Kenneth Hodges took care of the gate. Bob Rounsefell was chairman of the parking committee assisted by the district volunteer firemen. Better than $200 was turned over to the Rykken family.

Girl Scout Dinner

Mrs. Wallace Iverson's Girl Scout Troop 561 celebrated the anniversary of their first birthday last Friday.

The girls guided by Mrs. Iverson planned and cooked their dinner Friday. And after spending the night in the club house, prepared the breakfast as part of the year's program. Mothers are needed to serve on troop committees. Mrs. Iverson attended a leaders training meeting in Portland last Tuesday.

Yvonne Merry Staples and Jesse Sudul of Rt. 2, Boring, were married Saturday, Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Martin Luther church, Milwaukie. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Staples of Damascus. Pastor Raymond performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Ray Paxton was musician. The bride wore a white lace over white satin gown with a white net veil. White lace high heels. She carried pink carnations and a white Bible.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Melvin Staples.

The only attendant was maid of honor, Yvonne Becker.

Candlelighters were Darlene Cox and Melvin Staples. Best man was Lewis Bliss. Ushers were Dwayne and John Staples.

Some 150 guests attended the wedding and reception that was held in the church reception room. Malinda and Marlene Burley poured, assisted by Vera and Rose Mason.

The bride's going away costume consisted of a blue suit she had made in her high school home economics class, topped with a carnation corsage. The couple's wedding trip took them through Nevada and Arizona to Las Vegas and back through California. They will be at home at Rt. 2, Box 751, Boring, after March 3.

Souders Lose Mare

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Souders lost a valuable quarter horse mare Saturday.

The mare was due to foal soon, and became ill while eating, she started to bleed at the nose and rolled over and died. The cause of her illness will be discovered through an autopsy.

The Souders have lost three valuable mares by the same manner within a ten year period.

This particular mare was the special riding horse of Mrs. Souders.

Edgar Grohn suffered a fatal heart attack at his home about 8 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 16. He is survived by his widow, Elda. The Boring firemen were summoned but Edgar failed to rally.

The Noah Calvin family is living in the Betty Schedeen house in Damascus.

Sherrill, Andy and Noland are attending Damascus school. There are two small children at home.

Prowlers Escape
Dee Wescott and Clifford volunteer firemen were called out to investigate prowlers at Jack Kittings wrecking yard late Saturday night.

The firemen assisted by state policemen set up a communications system but the prowlers escaped capture.

Dee Wescott fire chief states, there will be a close watch on all business houses or property in Damascus.
