Trampoline Fall Sprains Neck

Connie Smith, who was injured Friday while practicing on a trampoline at Sandy high, is said to have suffered a moderate neck sprain. Dr. Elton Leavitt of Sandy, who took care of her, says she is back at school and he does not foresee any ill effects from the sprain. Connie hit her head but was not able to say for sure whether it was the edge of the trampoline or the floor on which her head bumped, causing the sprained neck.

Turtle Clubbers Induct R. Howard

When George (Ray) Howard was inducted into the exclusive Turtle Club recently he may quite likely have been thinking back to the night of October 12 when he "qualified" for membership. There are few who do not remember that night of the big wind and those who were out in it will probably never forget it. Certainly Howard, a member of a survey crew, will not forget it either.

He was working with two other members of the surveying crew on a new road location when a gust of wind blew a limb from a big fir. The limb struck Howard's hard hat, knocking him almost unconscious. The only ill effects he suffered from this blow that creased his cranium cover was some temporary dizziness. If he hadn't had the hard hat on his head? Probably he would not have been around to receive the certificate and the new hard hat with which Zig Zag Ranger Stan Rapp presented him. These are the certificate and badge of the Turtle Club, the club whose members have all been clobbered on their hard hats by a blow

Democratic Women Invited to Meet

Margaret Ann Fielding of Zig Zag urges Democratic women of the area to make every effort to attend the Wednesday, Feb. 27 meeting of the Jane Jefferson club, in the Luelling Room. "This is a county-wide organization of Democratic women," says Mrs. Fielding. "The coming meeting should be particularly interesting, as Rep. Juanita Orr will be on hand to show the film 'The Legislative Process.'"

Mrs. Fielding points out that this film was made at the last session of the legislature, with our own legislators depicted as they represent the people of their districts. The club provides dessert and coffee and those who attend generally bring a sack lunch.

Stan Rapp, Zig Zag Ranger, presents Ray Howard with certificate of membership in the Turtle Club.

Burglars Hit Schools At Welches, Cottrell

Three local school burglaries are being investigated, one at Cottrell school and two at Welches, according to Clackamas county sheriff's officers. Officers said an estimated $115 and several envelopes marked "milk fund" were taken from Cottrell school Feb. 12. A plywood sheet had been removed from an outside door to a boiler room which was under construction to enter the school building. A hundred dollars was taken from the principal's desk and $15 was taken from four other rooms. Locks on the doors and the desk had been jimmied, officers said. At Welches school burglaries totaled about $650 in cash, checks and equipment, according to officers. Tools valued at $12, and $80 in cash and $80 in checks were reported to have been taken from the principal's office. Earlier in the month thieves entered the building through a basement door, taking an estimated $60-$70 from March of Dimes envelopes in the office, a radio-phonograph valued at $350 and a phonograph valued at $35.
