Presbyterians Slate Outstanding Speakers

Rev. Alexander Hood is speaking at Sandy Community Presbyterian church Friday, March 1 at 8 p.m. His topic is "Service" in relation to "Christian Growth," the theme of the preaching mission for the week of Feb. 25-March 1. Rev. Hood is 82 years young. His father and two of his brothers are Presbyterian ministers. He has spent more than 35 years serving Indian Mission Work in California and Washington. He retired in 1946 and moved to Portland and has made his home there since. The public is cordially invited to come hear this young in spirit and wise in service gentleman. There will be a time of fellowship after the meeting. Other speakers during the week will be Dr. Robert Bonthus, Rev. J. Arthur Stevenson, Rev. Kenneth Shellback and Rev. Morris Keyser. The pastor of Eastminster Presbyterian church, the Rev. Mr. J. Arthur Stevenson, will

REV. ALEXANDER HOOD speak on "The Bible" at the evening of Feb. 26.

He was educated at Whitworth college and Princeton seminary. He pastored churches in Washington and was pastor at Vernon church in Portland for 18 years. His family includes a daughter Isabel in Seattle, a son John at Whitworth college and twin sons James and George who are sophomores in high school.

SNOW CHATTER
 Around Wemme and Brightwood

With spring-like weather abounding here on the mountain the second week of February seems like a miracle after all the cold of January. If the good weather holds the kids will forsake the old basketball for the baseball. So mothers take a word of suggestion. Gather up all the baseball equipment and be one jump ahead of the young-uns. Welches Wildcats chalked up a basketball victory number two Friday, Feb. 8, with a 26 to 12 score against Damascus Grade school. Larry Paugh led the Wildcats to victory scoring 14 points; Steve Root 6, Clyde Shaver 2, Dexter Hill 2 and Royal Carter 2. I was not kidding about Wilda Cox drag racing about in her wheel chair. Stopped by and there she was scooting about fixing breakfast. So at long last Wilda is well on the way to a complete recovery. Sylvia Mathews is back home at Wildwood after her last siege of hospital life. Sylvia feeling pretty fair and real glad to be home. H. Miller Returns Harvey Miller has moved to his old location at Wemme and is ready to go back to work. Glad you're back, Harvey our sets need you. Ruth and Bill Fulton, Alder Creek, are away down in California. Ruth is visiting friends in Palm Springs, while Bill and Frank Elder were at sea aboard the aircraft carrier Coral Sea. Bill tells me when the ship took off from Alameda the harbor pilot miscalculated the channel. In a pea soup fog the 63,000 ton carrier ran aground. After eight hours and 18 tugs pulling hard they were afloat again. Bill says after all this ado he is anxious to get back to our mountains. Ray Novotny, Wildwood, is back after his trip to Washington D. C. and Ohio. Ray missed all our bad weather. True to form the weather was beautiful for his return. Georgia Kellner, Faubian, is off to Portland to visit her mother who has been quite ill. Peggy Young, Rhododendron, is struggling about on crutches. Peggy slipped on some ice up at Hood, resulting in a bad injury to her knee. So welcome to our community folks. The Youngs are moving down near Welches school this week. To Jeary Radmilovich — Smile, you may be on candid camera. So — have pen will write — have phone will answer.

SDA Members Report Pledges

Pastor W. D. Bresee conducted a Victory Service at the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist church, Sunday, Feb. 10. The appointed solicitors reported on their visits to local members to obtain pledges for enlarging the Hood View S.D.A. grade school near Boring. According to the reports, about 90 per cent of the members responded with commitments totalling over $22,000 to be paid over a period of three years, with other cards yet to come in. The goal of $19,000 was over-subscribed by more than $3,000. The pastor led the congregation in songs and prayer.

Obituaries

OTTO RIDDERBUSCH
 Otto Ridderbusch, 81, who had been a resident of the Jewel area for over the past 50 years died Feb. 9 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Hascall near Timber. Funeral services for Ridderbusch were conducted Tuesday, Feb. 12 at 11 a.m. at Fuiten's Mortuary Chapel, Vernonia, with Rev. Ronald Gallop, pastor of the Vernonia Bible church officiating. Mrs. Frank Serafin served as soloist and organist at the services. Concluding rites and interment were at the family lot at the Sandy cemetery. Ridderbusch was born Oct. 9, 1881 at Sandy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ridderbusch who were pioneer settlers at Sandy. He spent his early years at Sandy moving thence in 1908 to the Jewel area where he had lived the balance of his lifetime. Ridderbusch spent most of his years here doing forestry and fire patrol work and logging. Prior to his retirement he had been almost 30 years with the Northwest District Fire patrol. Surviving are four children: two sons, David Ridderbusch, Everett, Wash., Vernon Ridderbusch, Jewel; two daughters, Mrs. Charles (Hazel) Hascall, Timber Route, Vernonia and Mrs. Roy (Ruth) Benefield, Sanford, Fla. Also surviving are two brothers, William, Warrenton and Albert of Cloverdale, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. R. C. Rierson, Jewell; 12 grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

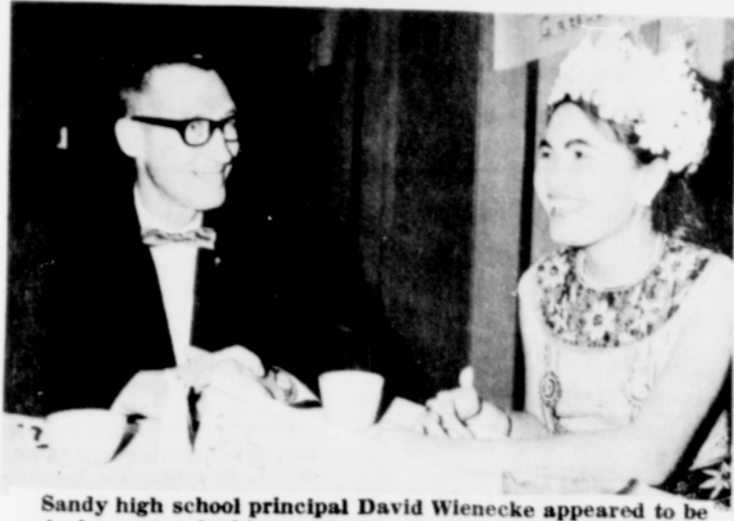

ALFRED D. FONKEN
 Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock Friday morning for Alfred Delrich Fonken, 67, of Rt. 2, Box 451, Sandy, a poultryman and former construction worker. He died Monday. Fonken had lived on a farm in the Sandy vicinity since 1947, two years after coming to the Portland area. Born on Aug. 2, 1895 at Manning, Iowa, he grew up there and later moved about the country in construction work. He was a private in the army during World War I, serving with the 84th Spruce Squadron of the air corps. He had never married. Final rites will be at Carroll Funeral Home in Gresham, with burial at Willamette National cemetery. Survivors include three brothers, Bill, Willow Lake, S. D.; Emil, Kelso, Wash., and August, Vancouver, Wash.

Sandy Pastor Aids Migrants

Rev. Edward Neuenfeldt, pastor of the Sandy Community Presbyterian church, was named chairman of a committee to improve relations between migrants and farmers in Clackamas county and other parts of the state. Rev. Neuenfeldt's appointment came when a group met recently at Montavilla Methodist church in Portland under the auspices of the World Council of Churches. Attending the meeting were representatives of the state departments of health, education and labor, along with interested persons from all over the state and from many religious denominations. There were 15 Sandy residents at the meeting besides Rev. Neuenfeldt. Other Clackamas county residents present were June Anderson and Maude Nelson of Colton.

CARL C. PAULSEN
 Funeral services will be held Friday for Carl Christian Paulsen, 78, a farmer who had lived on a Boring area farm since 1907. He died Tuesday. Born in Brandesland, Denmark, Paulsen came to America at the age of 18 and settled in Oregon. He bought land in the Boring area in 1907 and farmed it until his death. His wife Mary preceded him in death in 1945. Survivors include a son, Samuel, of Boring, and three grandchildren. Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday in Carroll Funeral Home, with burial in Douglas cemetery.

PAINTING CLASS
 Classes in oil painting will be held once a month on Saturday at the Woman's Club hall. Those interested in joining should call Mrs. Lillian Ten Eyck, MU 7-2202.

Sandy high school principal David Wienecke appeared to be enjoying not only his spaghetti and home made bread, but also the company of the charming little girl from the far away Indonesian Islands at last Saturday's dinner honoring foreign exchange students of the area. The fanciful costume and headdress which Sriatun Sukawati wears takes her an hour to put on.

SANDY KIWANIS CLUB

The Sandy Kiwanis Club paid tribute to the Boy Scouts this week with a program entitled "Purpose and Community Support of Scouting" as National Boy Scout Week came to a close. Capt. Jim Hartman, program chairman for the evening and also Scoutmaster of the Sandy troop, introduced Lawrence Trullinger, Thunderbird Scout District Chairman, and Lisle Walker, District Commissioner and commissioner Walker both spoke on the values of scout leadership and activities and emphasized the need for another troop in the Sandy area. The averages show that this area has fewer Boy Scouts in relation to population than the national and state average. Marvin Prestwood at the Portland Thunderbird District would like to see another troop in this area and after the necessary groundwork has been completed they will be looking for some organization to sponsor the new troop. A movie was shown and it showed the typical daily routine of a scoutmaster and the feeling of self-satisfaction he gets from his job and the scout activities. Marvin Prestwood announced at the meeting that the Portland Area Kiwanis Clubs, of which Sandy is a member, had purchased 2,000 tickets to the March 24 hockey game with San Francisco. Proceeds from these tickets will go to the Mt. Hood Kiwanis Crippled Children's Camp. Anyone interested in seeing the game may purchase tickets from Olin Bignall, at Sandy Rexall Drug Store or Marvin Prestwood at the Portland General Electric office. Game time is 7 p.m., on Sunday, March 24.

Proclamation
 CENTENNIAL OF THE DUAL BANKING SYSTEM
 By The Mayor Of Sandy, Oregon
 A Proclamation
 WHEREAS the year 1863 marks the centennial of the approval by President Lincoln of the National Currency Act of February 25, 1863; and
 WHEREAS the National Currency Act led to the establishment of a system of National banks chartered by and operated under the supervision of the Federal Government, and chartered with the responsibility of issuing a new National Currency; and
 WHEREAS this was the beginning of the "Dual Banking System" which for a century has been instrumental in the economic growth and prosperity of the United States; and
 WHEREAS this dual system of National banks and their chartered commercial banks, connected and functioning in the spirit of cooperative enterprise, has provided the credit necessary to serve the economy vital, has contributed greatly to the material and strengthening of the Nation in times of crisis, and stands today as a symbol of our country's present strength and future capabilities; and
 WHEREAS it is appropriate that the centennial of the approval of the National Currency Act be commemorated to commemorate the significance of the establishment of the Dual Banking System.
 NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mike Paluck Mayor of Sandy, Oregon, do hereby proclaim the period from February 25, 1963, to December 31, 1963, as the Centennial of the Dual Banking System of the United States.
 I urge the people of Sandy and surrounding areas to join with representatives of the banking institutions in activities and ceremonies designed to pay tribute to the people of this community who have made the Dual Banking System a reality and to the people of the CLACKAMAS COUNTY BANK. I have heretofore set no hand and caused the Seal of the CLACKAMAS COUNTY BANK to be affixed.
 Done at the City of Sandy, Oregon, this 20th day of February, 1963, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three.
 Mike Paluck
 Mayor

AND WE'RE CELEBRATING....
 A. 52 Years of Banking Service to Sandy
 B. 100 Years of Dual Banking System
 C. 13 Years in our Present Building

A Word About Dual Banking
 President Lincoln signed into law the National Currency Act on Feb. 25, 1863. It gave the United States its first uniform national currency, and created a new system of nationally-chartered banks which took their place beside the already-established state-chartered banks. Thus, the Act of 1863 marked the beginning of our present-day dual commercial banking system. The Clackamas County Bank is joining with other commercial banks in observing this Centennial of commercial banking.
