Gresham Co-op Meeting Slated Monday Night

The 29th annual membership meeting of the Gresham Cooperative will be held at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening in the Gresham Grange hall.

Highlight of the program will be an illustrated talk by Al Lamb, manager of the Morrow County Grain Growers, Inc., on his trip to Africa last summer with a U.S. Department of Commerce trade mission.

The trip included a visit to the hospital and leper colony operated by Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

Reports on last year's business will be given by the co-op auditor and manager and three directors will be elected. Oscar Brue, 3518 NE 162nd Ave., one of three directors whose terms expire, is nominated for re-election to a three-year term.

The two other present directors, George Toya and George Metzger, have served two full terms and are not eligible for re-election. Two new nominees for three-year terms are William B. Strebin, Rt. 2, Box 1105, Troutdale, and Jack Ickler, Rt. 2, Box 1047, Troutdale.

The Grange hall is located on Section Line Road (Division St.) just west of Cleveland Ave.

Legion to Hold District Meet Here in June

A district convention of the American Legion next June 15-16 will bring about 500 Legionnaires and their wives here.

Details of the convention plans were given to the city council last week by Bill Jolly, commander of Gresham Legion Post 30, and R. E. Younts, commander of District 7.

Jolly said the last Legion state convention voted to allow each district to have its own convention to encourage broader participation by Legionnaires. The Gresham gathering of District 7, which includes 23 posts and more than 3,000 members, will be the first of the district meetings.

The first day's program on a Saturday will include a grand parade on Powell Blvd. and Roberts and Main Sts. and a drum and bugle corps exhibition at the Gresham high school stadium. It will close with a dance Saturday evening at the armory.

On Sunday morning the Legionnaires will have a silent parade in memory of their departed comrades in arms. Gold Star Mothers will march in the memorial parade.

Committee meetings and a business session will take up much of the day. Sunday evening there will be a banquet with a prominent guest speaker.

The mayor and council pledged their cooperation on plans for the convention. Local Post 30 and its auxiliary will be the official hosts for the session.

State Bar Holds Student Contest

Oregon high school students are once again being challenged to turn their thoughts toward what it means to live in a free society ruled by law instead of fear, as the Oregon State Bar's annual high school editorial contest for Law Day 1963 gets under way.

This year's theme is: The Law — Rule of Right, Not Might. Judges in this statewide contest are Michael J. Frey of The Oregonian; Gus J. Solomon, Chief Judge of the United States District Court, and Richard H. Sullivan, president of Reed College, according to an announcement made by Norman J. Wiener, chairman of the Law Day committee for the bar.

Prizes will be awarded at special ceremonies to be held in Portland, May 1. First prize is a portable typewriter; second, a $50 savings bond; third, a $25 savings bond.

All high school students are eligible to enter the contest and notices and entry blanks have been sent to all public high schools.

Growers Meet At Gresham

Growers of horticultural crops in the county are reminded of the North Willamette Horticulture Society meeting being held at Gresham today, Feb. 28 by Robert Smith, County Extension Agent.

The session will cover aspects of vegetable production as related to fertilizers and insect control.
