Load Increase Given Loggers

Log truck haulers were granted another foot of payload space as a result of action last Thursday by the State Highway Commission.

The Commission amended a resolution which previously had forbidden log trucks to haul loads higher than 12 feet 6 inches. The new ruling now allows haulers to load their logs to a height of 13 feet 6 inches, the same height limitation as on other vehicles.

State Highway Engineer Forrest Cooper recommended the permit change. He pointed out the lack of accidents in loss of loads and the improvements in hauling equipment and the better methods of securing loads in recent years.

The new height will apply to all log trucks, providing the banks on which the logs are carried are equipped with stakes.

Except on a few highways where the higher loads are prohibited because of low structures, all vehicles will now be permitted to haul loads having a maximum height of 13 feet 6 inches, with the exception of vehicles transporting lumber. Oregon law presently prohibits lumber trucks from going beyond a height of 12 feet 6 inches.

Ourecky Takes Teaching Post

Dr. Donald K. Ourecky, a former resident of Kelso community and a graduate of Sandy high school, has accepted an assistant Professorship at Cornell University starting March 1.

He resigned a position with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Georgia to become an assistant Professor in Cornell's Department of Pomology. In the new post he will be working at the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station, doing Cytological and Horticultural research on grapes, apples and small fruits.

Ourecky, now 30, received his Bachelor's Degree from Oregon State University at Corvallis. With the aid of a Fellowship received there, he earned his Master's Degree and Doctor's Degree in Horticulture from Washington State University at Pullman.

HERE and THERE with AUDREY COLSON Phone MU 7-2051

What an exciting week this will be for the Sandy folks, what with the school kids out of school for three days for spring vacation and the high school basketball team going to Eugene for the State Basketball Tournament.

Of course you probably know that Sandy plays Hermiston at 3:15 on Wednesday. Then they play again Thursday at 7:30 p.m. If they go on to win I'm not sure of the times — you will have to watch your local papers for the times on those games.

I plan to see the Wednesday and Thursday games but doubt that I will get to see the rest of the games unless we stay all night down there Thursday night and the kids play on Friday morning. That should be lots of fun. I hope they get to stay in there till the very end.

Shirley Gray and her two little boys and myself traveled to Gladstone last Wednesday to have lunch with Norma Dove and her two children; was a lovely day and enjoyed the lunch very much. Norma was in the middle of plans for a birthday dinner for her husband, Don, for Saturday night when they were having the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dubarke from Boring, Mr. and Mrs. Don Dubarke and Stevie from Beaverton, Terry Calhoun from Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Pihl and children from Beaverton.

Grange Card Party
There will be a regular card party at the Kelso Grange this Saturday, March 23, at 8 p.m. There will be door prizes and lunch served to all who come and the public is invited.

The Home Economics club of the Sandy Kelso Grange are in the final stages of planning for their annual ham dinner to be held at their club hall at Kelso on Saturday, March 30.

Don't forget this dinner — it is always well planned and served. Lots of home made pies will be available for the dessert. The dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8 p.m. and the cost is adults $1.25, children 75 cents.

Plans are almost completed for the annual BPW Style show to be held in the Sandy high school cafeteria on Wednesday, March 27. So don't forget this big event. Styles will be shown from Wheeler's Weaving Shop and Scales Store and Bea's Dress Shop. Grockett Jewelry will be showing some jewelry. Plan ahead for this.

Sandy community birthday listings for this week are as follows: Monday, March 18, Kenneth Hoyda and Elaine Decker; Tuesday, Fred Proctor; Wednesday, Tom Johnson and Vickie Ulmen; Friday, David Dickenson, Al Lamke and Mitchell Cummings; Sunday, Jan Rutledge.

Clubs meeting next week are Thursday, Kiwanis; Saturday, Sandy Grange card party at 8 p.m.; Monday, March 25, Moms and Dads club; Tuesday, March 26, Chamber of Commerce and Sandy Jayettes; Wednesday, Presbyterian Ladies Aid and the BPW Style show at the high school cafeteria.

Don't forget to trade at the stores who sponsor the Sandy Community Calendar.

Busy Mother
Busiest little blonde in town that I know of is Marge Richardson, what with son Bill's wedding coming up soon. She is busy working on the bridal gown and other gowns to go with the wedding party. How she finds the time for all this sewing I'll never know. But she gets it all done with time to spare though.

Last Thursday night at bowling, there was quite a lot of excitement going on. Babe Dobson of the Oja Lumber team won her 575 trophy; she had a 579 series. There were four girls who got a 201 and Betty Chestnut also got a 222 plus one of the 201. Took me two games to get one of those scores.

Next year I'm really going to take this up seriously; I have to. There will be no bowling this week for us because so many will be at the state basketball tournaments. Our banquet is scheduled for April 20. We are looking forward to this.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Huck were Sunday dinner hosts to a group of people after church. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dubarke, Mr. and Mrs. Don Dubarke, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Dove and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Huck and children.

I have been told that I am prejudiced towards our basketball team, but that is not so. I like all sports; it's just that basketball seems less cruel than wrestling, boxing, etc.

But I do have this little information on the wrestling boys who are coached by Lyle Jarvis of the Sandy high school staff Saturday at Corvallis High School. Calvin McKinnis, and Hal Dyal entered the high school division of the eliminations towards going to Japan to compete with the Japanese wrestlers.

Dad Wrestles
I'm not going into it in detail for fear I will say something of which I know nothing about, but this I do know — we can be very proud of Hal Dyal who took a 3rd place medal in his weight class and will go on towards the eliminations.

Also we can be proud of Hal's dad, Bill Dyal, who entered the AAU Open and took 2nd place medal in the heavyweight division. Congratulations to both of them and we are proud of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Long-wright division. Congratulations street went down to watch the boys wrestle and so did Mrs. Bill Dyal.

Baptist Chapel Men's Group Hear Alaskan Missionary

After Sandy Baptist Chapel's prayer breakfast last Saturday these 15 men remained to spend the day working on the new chapel construction. From left are Henry Whitlock, Bert Walbel, Bill Whitlock, David Russell, Clarence Bennett, Jay Minyard, Wally Von Bergen, Erret Moore, David Ziemer, Zeryl Silver, William Fisher, Al Hagen, Carroll Chambers, Wes Childers and Mel Jensen.

Members of the Men's Fellowship Group of Sandy Baptist Chapel heard an address by Melvin Jensen, missionary to Alaska, on the "Christian Father's Responsibility," at a prayer breakfast held in the chapel and chapel annex, Saturday, March 16.

Following the meeting and breakfast, work on the new chapel was resumed by members whose work schedules permitted them to remain for that purpose. Rev. Harold L. Fuller, the pastor, "hopes the new chapel will be available for occupancy by the first week in April."

Ted Childers, newly-elected president of the Mens' Fellowship group and teacher of the adult Sunday school class, led the meeting with an opening prayer, after which he introduced the principal speaker, Melvin Jensen, of Boring, who has served with Arctic Missions, Inc. in Alaska (with his wife, Patricia, and three young children) for the past eight years.

Speaking with the authority of experience, Mr. Jensen said, "Our responsibility toward the Lord Jesus Christ as fathers is an appropriate challenge, and we have a decision to make."

Following the missionary's address and prayer service the group retired to the Chapel Annex for breakfast. Pastor Fuller, John Fussell and Zeryl Silver prepared and served the 23 hungry men waffles and fresh sausage. Seventeen members remained to spend a full work day on construction of the new chapel.

Baptist Chapel Women to Meet

The Women's Missionary Society of Sandy Baptist chapel will meet Thursday evening, March 21, at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Sandcock. Mrs. Nancy Williams, director of the Women's Branch of Union Gospel Mission, Portland, will be guest speaker.

Sunday, March 24 at 6 p.m., Roberta Fay will be at the Sandy Baptist chapel to share with the young people some of her experiences in missionary work in Argentina. Miss Fay has been with Child Evangelism Fellowship for a number of years and is soon to return to South America with C.E.E.; this time to Brazil. She will also bring a message at the 7 p.m. service.

Episcopal Church Changes Services

Services at the Episcopal Church of St. Mary Magdalene have been changed from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., according to Rev. Rene Bozarth. He invites all friends of the church and interested people of the area to come.

The structure that has been until recently a convent for the Sisters of the Society of St. Paul has been temporarily closed and will presently be used for a retreat. It is to be called "St. Paul's House."

U.S. Offers Loans to Vets

More than one million dollars will be available this spring for federal GI direct home loans to Oregon veterans. R. J. Novotny, Manager of the Portland Veterans Administration Regional Office, announced.

Eligible World War II and Korean conflict veterans who apply for a direct loan by letter to the Portland office within the next few weeks will have their application processed in the order of receipt.

However, a veteran should not apply for a loan until he has a specific property in mind, Novotny said.

SANDY RIDGE EXTENSION UNIT

By MRS. JAMES F. COOK

The Sandy Ridge Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Cook on Thursday, March 14.

Mrs. Helen McDowell, Clackamas County Home Economics Agent spoke to the ladies on "Living With One's Tensions." Tensions can be brought on by disappointments, minor irritations, fear and a feeling of inadequacy. These were a few of the reasons given. Guarding against becoming tense would often be much easier than finding a way in which to release one's emotions.

The following suggestions were given to relieve tension: talk it out, escape for a while, work off anger, give in occasionally, do something for others and shun the "Superman" urge. On the other hand, it is also a fact that some tension is often times helpful in achieving a goal.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon. Tables were decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's. Daffodils and carnations were used to brighten the home.

Mrs. Rudolph Huserick, chairman, presided at the business meeting. Achievement Day was discussed and plans made. Mrs. Wesley Kent and Mrs. James Cook will attend the Project Leader Training meeting on "A Will of Your Own." This project will be presented to the unit at the May meeting.

Mrs. Maurice Seibert will be hostess for the April meeting. Mrs. Lawrence Terrill will present the lesson on "Personal Development."

Guests were: Mrs. Greta Albel, Mrs. William Oldenburg and daughters, Mrs. Robert Logerwell and sons, Mrs. David Myers and daughter, Mrs. Parker Holloway, Mrs. Robert Ihke, Mrs. Orley Quinn, Mrs. Mary Allen and Mrs. Marie Wunische.

SNOW CHATTER

Let's try again — okay? Once again our area was touched by a light snow fall, but thank heaven it melted off right away. With spring only a scant few days away, snow now is ridiculous.

Welches Wildcats played their last basketball game Friday, March 15, against Cottrell grade school. Welches girls volleyball team won with a 29 to 15 victory. Welches Wildcats ended the season with a 23 to 12 victory.

So now Welches has laid away the basketball and it's now softball season. Yep, 'tis the season for torn and muddy jeans, once again.

The house of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Flynn, Wemme, has been bustling all week. Guests have been Mr. and Mrs. John Kelleher from New Jersey. Mrs. Kelleher is Neal's sister.

Arrah Wanna district will soon have new neighbors. The David Dahm home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford of Oswego. So welcome to our district.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gervais are back home after their three week vacation to the Hawaiian Islands. Small world proved true when the Gervais' met the Gene Bowmans while on the Islands.

Flu Bug Lingers
The old flu bug is still messing around our area. Melissa Anderson was down for a few days but, Melissa is back to health and skiing, bringing home more trophies.

Speaking of trophies, Babe Dodson, Oja Lumber bowling team, took home the 575 trophy Thursday night, March 14. 575 Trophy is donated to any bowler rolling 575 or more. Babe rolled a 201-177-201, adding up to a big 579 series.

Me? I started out on Oja team, low on the totem, and I'm still there. Oh well, I have fun anyway, low or not. Still no precision I guess.

I've news for all who rode old yellow to the berry fields last summer. Old yellow will ride again this season. Just thought you berry pickers would enjoy that bit of info. If last week's copy reads old hat just overlook it. It's a long story.

Before I end these immortal lines, I'll say Happy Birthday to Karl Lundgren on his big day, March 24. May you enjoy many more big days Karl, sincerely—Gracie Shaver—Snow Chatter.
