At Anderson Station— Ex-School Chums Enjoy Visiting

By MRS. M. B. LANDIS

ANDERSON STATION — Mrs. Flossie Gilman from Mt. Vernon, Ore. and Mrs. Fred Booker from Heppner were guests for four days this past month of Mrs. Jim Omhundo. These ladies were old school-mates in the grades.

Mrs. D. C. Blackledge has returned home from Carmi, Ill. where she was called by the death of her mother.

Mrs. Marie Quivy and Mrs. Charlett Franzen of Montavilla were recent visitors of their girlhood friends of Mrs. Freda Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Weaver, Sheila and Jimmy were recent guests of the R. P. Weavers.

The First year 4-H sewing meets every Wednesday right after school in the East Gresham grade school.

Members are Terrie Clark, Cynthia Blackledge, Diane Yamashita, Marsha Jackson, Becky Jackson, Rose Ann Kraxberger, Marilyn Shephard, Deborah Fisher, Carolyn Boesch, Debbie Morris, Gayle Dayton, Jeanie Smith, Patty Cahill and Patty Allen.

Leaders are Mrs. Albert Palmblad, Mrs. R. P. Weaver and Mrs. Dean Nelson.

The March 4-H meeting of the Stitch and Rip Sewing club was held recently at the Joe Wooley residence. Materials for the new sewing projects were discussed.

After the business meeting the girls exhibited projects completed in the window of the Cornet Dime Store in honor of 4-H week.

RED CROSS SERVES

The Red Cross served more than 5,429 persons in Clackamas county over the past year. Some of the services provided here, include: teaching courses in first aid, water safety, home nursing, and mother and baby care; restoring the health of the sick and injured with whole blood and its lifesaving components — gamma globulin, serum albumin and fibrinogen.
