

BUSTLING AROUND BORING

By MRS. JOHN OLDS
MO 5-6929

BORING—Rev. Paul Ackerman was speaker at Wednesday evening graduation held in Boring Elementary school auditorium. Principal Norval Naas introduced him.

Carol Meier played accordion solos, and Larry Verdoorn two piano solos. Boys' sextet comprised of Fred Shoff, Larry Verdoorn, David Tate, David Peer, David Tillstrom and Douglas Kelley sang "Aloha Oe" and "Evening Bells."

Warren Norquist of the school board presented diplomas and Rev. Harold Swanberg gave the benediction. The girls' chorus also sang. Class officers were Linda Moore, president; Everett Wilson, vice president and Larry Verdoorn, secretary-treasurer. Cheer leaders were Linda Moore, Theresa Haefner, Carol Meier and Mickey Gregson.

Man Hurt at Work

Joe Kraus broke his hand at Crown Zellerbach last weekend and is wearing a cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shields took their new trailer on a "shakedown cruise" last weekend to Beverley State park on the coast. They sold their former trailer with overhang and purchased the current model.

Gerald Hale is one of 10 high school seniors in Oregon, we understand, to receive a scholarship at the University of Oregon medical school to study work as an X-ray and radiology technician. He is driving a new green car which will help him get to classes starting next fall. Congratulations, Gerald!

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Naas, Mrs. Mary Layng and Mrs. Trudy Meier took a group of Methodist Youth Fellowship members to Kahneeda springs Saturday. There were some dandy sunbathers - to be afterwards. Those who went included Judy Naas, Danny Layng, Carl Naas, Larry and Ronnie Verdoorn, Pat Byrd, Jim Boring, Kay Markham, Janie Meier, Janet Meier, Carol Meier, Myrna and Melva Richey, Linda Moore.

Graduating 8th graders and high school seniors will be honored guests, along with their parents, at the monthly potluck dinner in Boring Methodist Community church next Sunday.

Helping Hands

The Helping Hands club recently completed a layette that was given to a needy family. Members of the Ladies' Aid of Boring Community Methodist church, friends and neighbors brought hot dishes to the home of Mrs. Norman Glover following last rites for Mr. Glover earlier this month. Some 36 relatives gathered at the home.

This past week, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Compton, brother of Mrs. Glover and his wife, came from Montana for a week's visit. They will call on relatives in Scappoose while here.

Fire Permits Needed

Fire Warden Ollie Peterson wishes Boring residents to remember that it is once again fire season and permits are needed before any fires are started.

Last week, 18 firemen responded to a call when David Palmer's car caught fire when he started it.

The Claude Higginbothams are having some land cleared. Roy Polivka is doing the work.

Toe Stompers Dance

The Boring Toe Stompers appeared on the Damascus Grange's 35th anniversary program last Saturday. Dancers included Ronnie and Larry Verdoorn, Michelle Gregson, Carol Meier, Tony Buzzard, Stephanie Wiebehaus, Darla Murphy, Eddie Neu, Linda Porter, Jim and John Olds, Roberta Rolli. Joyce Buzzard was caller.

GRANGE DINNER DANCE

Multnomah Grange is sponsoring a Columbia Products dinner and free dance at the Grange Hall on Bluff Road Saturday, May 25. Dinner will be served buffet style from 5 to 8 p.m., with the dance following the dinner. All area residents are invited.
