It was potluck, and those present were Leona Griffin Gladys Smith, Mrs. Carson, Ann Houston, Maxine and Houston, Jo Ann, Darlene Koch, Ellen Radford, Hazel and Karen Gregus, Margaret Paluck, Hollie Reynolds, Mrs. Sandblast and Mrs. Breen.

Dairy Princesses Guests At Bureau 'Ladies Night Out'

Members of the Multnomah County Dairy Princess Court were guests of honor at the Farm Bureau Women's fourth annual "Ladies Night Out" held last Tuesday at Eastmont. The court was presented by Mrs. William Elmer, Sr., chairman of the Dairy Princess committee. The Multnomah County Dairy Princess will be selected Monday, June 10, at East Orient school.

Carol Windust of Troutdale, 1962 Dairy Princess, addressed the contestants and members of the women's group. She spoke on the many advantages of entering such a contest and of her experiences as a dairy princess.

A former queen of the Portland Rose Festival, Mrs. Peter Grundfossen (Sharon Frey) was also a speaker during the evening.

Mrs. Fremont Sprowls served as "Miss Mary" for the program, and introduced the speakers. Group singing was led by Mrs. Wilbur Altman, and the blessing was said by Mrs. Lewis Moulton. The welcoming address was made by Mrs. LeRoy McNutt. Mrs. Oscar Brue gave suggestions on publicity to the members.

Mrs. Ira Willis, citizenship chairman, reported that American flags are for sale at the Multnomah County Farm Bureau office and that her committee hopes that every Farm Bureau member will have a flag to display on various holidays.

A brief resume of letters written to congressmen and members of the Oregon legislature was presented by Mrs. John Seidl.

Mrs. Vic Thompson was chairman for the dinner. Members of her committee were: Mesdames Joe Casale, Lewis Moulton, Elmer Sturm, Cletus Rupp, Joe Baum, Felix Chiodo, Jim Bushue and Mrs. Erna Batcheller.
