Aims Items—

AIMS — The recent Salmon supper, prepared and served by the American Legion and Auxiliary of Corbett, drew more than 400 customers between 5:30 and 8 p.m. — many persons before 7!

The dishes were washed, dried, put away and the cafeteria clean so members were ready to go home by 10:30 p.m.

Mother's day found the Aims residents at their usual Sunday activities, many at church.

The annual Mother's Tea was May 19. Coffee and tea were served, with cookies and candies. The daughters of the King's Helpers sang two numbers — one by the high school group and one by the younger girls. Nancy Kitchen and Norma Baker alternated with piano solos during the tea.

Mrs. Clarence (Annette) Rogers was the speaker — and also the chosen Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Rogers, the pastor's wife, received as her gift a necklace and earring costume jewelry set.

The women belonging to Aims Community club had a luncheon at the Flower Drum restaurant Thursday May 23. There were 14 ladies and four pre-school children who attended.

This last week of May is busy for the whole community with graduations — a couple on the same night!

May ends almost all social activities in Aims — except for church special meetings. The church is sponsor of the Aims Sunday School Daily Vacation Bible school, which starts June 3, and ends with evening exercises June 7.

The Sunday school picnic will be at the Glen Miller home July 14.

The annual Aims Community church Sunday school election of officers will be the first Tuesday in August at the quarterly family night potluck supper and business meeting. These are the only scheduled events of the summer.
