

Ziemer Sons Visit Parents

Rodney Ziemer, son of Freddie and Zella Ziemer of Route 2, Box 655, and a SUHS graduate in the class of 1957, traveled here with his wife and son, Rodney Deane Ziemer Jr., from Miamisburg, Ohio, where he is chief engineer of WFCJ-FM.

Richard Ziemer, who came home from Greenville, S. C., stopped in Ohio, then with Rodney and his family he went to Detroit to pick up a factory car which was to be delivered to a Seattle dealer. On the way here the party stopped in Oswego, Ill., to see Robert Ziemer, who is taking a 10-day course in operating (heavy) construction equipment.

Robert finished his course June 7, then left for Ohio where he will be with his fiancée. In August he will marry Barbara Blake from New London.

The party made other stops in St. Joseph, Michigan, Sioux City, Ia., and Middleton, Idaho. The trip ended with a pleasant surprise as the party arrived at Freddie Ziemer's Tuesday evening, June 4.

The next day Richard delivered the car to Seattle. His father followed in another car.
