THE POST'S 1963 BRIDE and GROOM SHOPPING TOUR

At Bowman's Mt. Hood Golf Club at Welches, Doni and Norm lunched in the restaurant where they had a view of the golf course and the towering mountains that surround it. At ter a leisurely luncheon they visited the gift shop, where they admired the distinctive giftware and sports clothes. Here Lucille Mower is adjusting a flowery pink resort hat for Doni while Norm inspects the matching bag.

At Scales' department store Doni found a lovely butterfly-yellow dress that looked like it had been made just for her. Created by Kay Whitney of dacron wash-and-wear organza, it features an embroidered bodice and bouffant skirt. Norm, who chose light gray flannel "Day's" slacks for himself, thought his best girl would look cute as a daisy in the dress. The young couple found that Scales' store stocks to serve the whole family, from granddad to the new baby. They found the staff friendly and helpful, too. The store, which was established in 1942, is located at Saelley and Main in Sandy.

Swim enthusiasts, the young couple were buying a supply of suntan lotion to take on their honeymoon at the coast and they found Sandy Rexall Drug store had a big selection of this important commodity. Doni liked the lovely light summer colognes that the store is featuring, too. Both were happy to learn that they could also purchase top quality luggage at the Sandy Drug store. Edna Gunderson, who helped our bride and groom, recommended the creamy Rexall suntan lotion as being an outstanding value.

Doni had a special smile for Norm when he bought her a milk shake at Dea's In and Out No. 3 in Sandy. Dea's big juicy hamburgers are a favorite with the young folks. Manager Mrs. Sheppard offers a full line of good things to eat and both table service and take-out orders. Fine food and fast service are featured at Dea's on the Loop highway at the east end of Sandy.

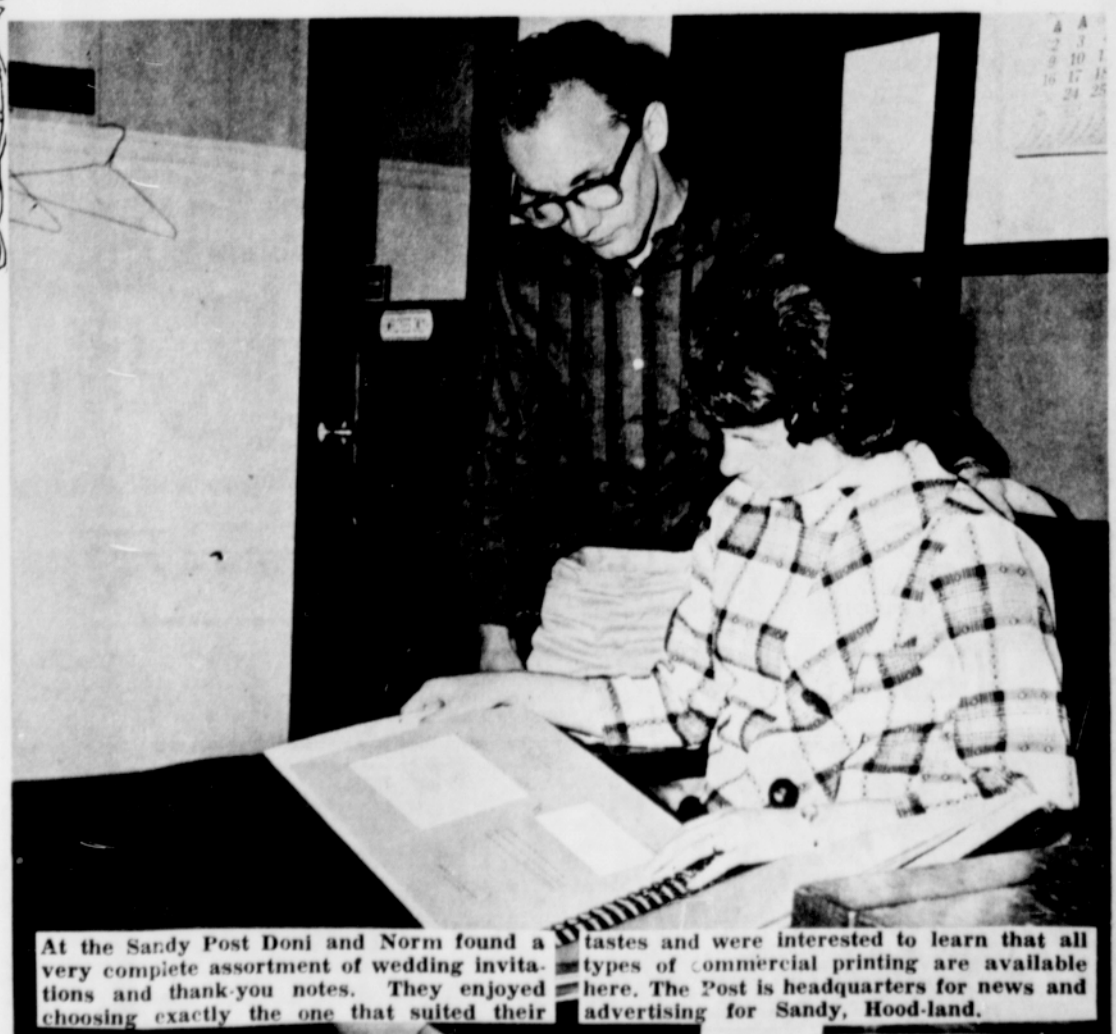

One of the many fine services offered by the Clackamas County Bank is its night depository for the convenience of after hour customers. Doni and Norm found that saving is the only way young folks can get ahead.

Planning a home can be fun when you have saved for rainy days. Sincere and courteous advice is always available at the Clackamas County Bank, a member of F.D.I.C. So drop in and become acquainted.

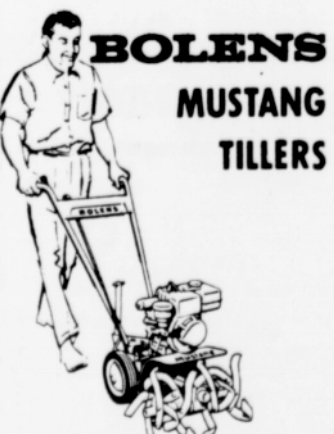

The young bride and groom are admiring a blue Spanish lace bride's basket (about 1870). These were often given as wedding gifts and were used for flowers or for cakes and cookies. For an enjoyable time of browsing come see the unusual and beautiful antiques at Jennie Welch's Antiques, at Welches, across from Bowman's Mt. Hood Golf Course. You will be pleasantly surprised to find so many antiques in the moderate price range. The worthwhile gift for bride or collector. Forty-four years of extensive study adds interesting detail to Jennie Welch's fine collection. Specializing in pattern glass, fine china, copper and brass. A cordial welcome awaits you, so come soon, or phone Hoodland 220 for appointment.

At the Sandy Post Doni and Norm found a very complete assortment of wedding invitations and thank-you notes. They enjoyed choosing exactly the one that suited their tastes and were interested to learn that all types of commercial printing are available here. The Post is headquarters for news and advertising for Sandy, Hoodland.
