Nell's Notes

Elsie Creighton had to return to the hospital, and we hope that by the time you are reading this she is back home.
 Also she would like to tell all the wonderful people who have sent her so many beautiful cards and flowers and have done other thoughtful things, how very much she appreciates them all.

Bill Goldthorpe, my idea of the indestructible man, is home from the hospital, complete with cast. He is the most cheerful person there is.

Had a very interesting chat with Gerald Wear. Gerald has the upholstery shop at Alder Creek. Every two or three weeks he goes to Wamic.
 Maupin, Madras and other eastern Oregon towns on upholstering jobs.

He also remodels old chairs and davenport and repairs antique furniture. He does wood carving to replace old broken parts of chairs and stains and varnishes furniture. He has a large variety of upholstery samples and materials in many price ranges.

Upholsters 20 Years
 Gerald has been upholstering for 20 years in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and other cities. He also repairs leather furniture. It is well worth your time to stop in and see what Gerald has to offer.

On Wednesday, June 19, the Golden Rule Sewing Circle had its final meeting of the season at the home of Mrs.

 Dee Farr in the Barlow Trail summer homes district.

After a tour through the Farr's Rainbow Ranch, the hostess served a luncheon. Not much sewing was accomplished, but the following ladies had a good time: Gladys Farr, Nell Bistorious, Florence Lionberger, Dorothy Meyer, Jo Drips, Beth Bradley, Leannah Morris and Lillian Owen.

The first meeting of the new season will be on the third Wednesday in September.

'Shortcake Night' Monday, June 17, was
 "Strawberry Shortcake Night" for the Mt. Hood Country Club Bridge club. The Lees and Bowmans treated.
 Marty Amacher made the shortcakes. Several vacationers joined in the duplicate play.
 All had a good time and the old timers enjoyed meeting the new people.

North - South winners were 1st, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Strong, Brightwood; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs.
 George Kaye of Wolches and Mrs. J. D. King, Portland.

East-West winners were, 1st, Mr. and Mrs. McCalm, Portland; 2nd, Patty Winn, Seattle, and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Gresham; 3rd, Mrs. Stanley
 Lithgoe and Mrs. Mary B.
 Worth of Portland.

The Ed Stocklen's have moved to California and the George Lienkaemper's are busy moving into their home, and Blanche. Now who was I going to be able to call to pick up my mother at the bus when I couldn't make it, and also answer my phone for me when I was expecting an important call and wouldn't be there to receive it. Then I remembered mother was moving also, and golly how we are going to miss her!
