SEED CROP PRICE
Prices equal to or even higher than last year are in prospect for most 1963 Oregon seed crops. Sales in both domestic and foreign markets have been large and carryover stocks are now generally smaller than a year ago.

HERE and THERE

With
AUDREY COLSON

I don't have very much news this week as I have been so busy moving into the new house that I haven't stuck my nose out of the paint cans very much. I don't have my new phone in yet so you can't reach me by phone until I get my new phone in. If it is something important for me you might phone Lee Longstreet and she might bring me the number to phone; good excuse to stop all my work for a cup of coffee. Congratulations to Berdine Shields and David Newman who were married at Vancouver, Wash., on July 3. Best man was the bridegroom's father, Sam Newman, and matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Helyn Reed. There was a reception for the couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowman in Boring. About 60 guests attended the reception.

Special out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grew of Notus, Ida. Other guests were Mrs. Sam Newman, Glenn Sheppard family and Terry and Russell Shields.

Birthdays Of The Week
Birthday calendar dates this week will be Monday, July 22, Shirley Scott, Alvin Sheldon, and Marie Seomatter; Tuesday, July 23, Denise Schell and Lorraine Townsend; Wednesday, July 24, Mr. and Mrs. Garlan McCullch, anniversary; July 25, Rev. Edward Neuenfeldt and Sandra Deming; Friday, July 26, Bob Berger; Saturday, July 27, Macelle Ruedi, Tully Bell, Lorin Townsend, Katherine Erickson, Nancy Malar, Russell Webber, and Penny Sue Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wessellink, anniversary; Sunday, July 28, Bina Perret, John Mitchell and Mary Beecher.

Club dates listed are Thursday, July 25, Kiwanis and Mt. Hood Jaycees, and Tuesday, July 30, Chamber of Commerce.

I had coffee with Esther Morris the other morning and she had her darling little grandson with her who with his family is visiting here from California. Dr. and Mrs. Franz Streeter and four children are visiting the L. J. Morris' for about three weeks. Mrs. Streeter is the daughter of the Morris'. They were taken to the Fly-In Breakfast and thought it was just fabulous, as it was the first one they had ever attended.

See you next week. Say, Grace Shaver of the Snow Chatter, I got a 546 in Monday night league bowling the other night. Now aren't you proud of me?

When the brand new rhythm band started up with "twist" music it went straight from the musicians' instruments to their fidgety feet and in a few short seconds the whole band was twisting while they played. (Sandy Post photo)

FRUIT CROP

Oregon producers with fruits and nuts to sell this year will probably receive higher prices than a year ago, but it is doubtful that the volume will be large enough to return a favorable income.
