Up and Down the Mountain

By JOE KIEFER

One of the mysterious characters of the Mt Hood region was Wheelbarrow John, who appeared in the 1880's.

If he had any other name it was never known. He was rarely seen since he traveled mostly at night, at which time he was glimpsed, usually trundling his belongings up the east fork of Hood river as far as the roads and trails would permit.

It was supposed that he was prospecting the east side of the mountain and there were times when the evidence of such an activity was found.

The few ore exposures he left showed very low values, and he seemed not to tarry very long in any one spot. He disappeared as strangely as he came.

Who names all our streams? There must be 1000, more or less, rock creeks.

I am happy there is only one Mt. Hood.
Mountain Man Duncan
I hear that an old mountain man, Jim Duncan, is not too skookum these days.

Good to meet and shake hands with Darrell Currier. Darrell has been a rock hound for years and has a wonderful collection.

Congratulations and good luck to Gary Gadwood on his new job as a teacher of choral music at Prineville high and junior high.

Shis - ka - bob is back yard English for stew on a stick. Horse racing is called the sport of kings.

Dog racing is called the sport of queens. Both of these sports are patronized by a lot of poor fish called suckers.

A sign seen at a Portland Drive In reads, "We feature dishes to take out."

However, our waitress isn't one of them.

J.F.K.'s Tax Cut
It's a funny world. J.F.K.'s proposed tax cut is like taking a man's pants and then giving him suspenders.

Cowboy artist Charley Russell used to tell about his friend who left the poker game downtown in Great Falls and started home a foot one winter's night.

He froze plumb to death instantly said Charley, on a corner about a block from the poker game.

At that point in the story Charley's interlocutor would remark that that was a terrible thing.

"Heck, no!" contradicted Charley. "He came in handy. We hung a lantern on him and used him for a lamp post all winter."

If ever some of you guys want to reform try this:
The first week — cut out smoking.
The second week — cut out drinking.
The third week — cut out women.
The fourth week — cut out paper dolls.

Clackamas Fair Sets Cook-Off

Activities at the Clackamas County Fair grounds are now reaching their final stage of development. Plans for the fair which is from Aug. 14 to 18 include a Mayors' Barbecue.

Letters have been sent to all the mayors in Clackamas county challenging them to a cook off to be held Saturday, Aug. 17 from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Stage shows are being organized under the direction of Joan Todd and Jean Monahan. There will be two shows daily, one at 2 p.m. and one at 8 p.m. A special Hootenanny is scheduled for 10 p.m. Friday, Aug. 16, and the audience will be invited to join the entertainers in singing popular folk-songs.

Applications are being accepted from those individuals who have an interest in entertaining in the stage shows. They can apply by sending their name, address, age, and the nature of their act to: Joan and Jean, in care of Clackamas County Fair, Box 658, Canby.

Other special activities to be included in this year's fair are a coin show, a free rodeo, and a wide variety of exhibits.

Cottrell Doings

Two of our local boys, Donald Boyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Boyles, and Donald Eri, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eri, have joined the Coast Guard, on the Buddy plan, and will be in the service four years. They left July 9 by plane for Alameda, Calif. for basic training. They are both graduates of Sandy high '63.

Mrs. Alvin Klinski is recovering at home from her recent illness, after her stay for a time in the hospital. She was quite ill for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gregus of Gresham are the parents of a new baby boy, named Kevin. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Bill Breen of Cottrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Sacramento, Calif., were here recently visiting her sisters, Mrs. Landon Lee and Mrs. Clarence Griffin.

Visiting here from Eureka, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins, son of the Harvey Watkins and brother of Mrs. Ernest Meyer and Mrs. Norval Naas. There were several family gatherings while the visitors were here, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyer took them to The Dalles one day. Spending a few weeks at the Roy Brook home are Nancy and Larry Johnson of Gardena, Calif. Their mother is Roy Brooks' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jester, Dodge Park Rd, held open house Sunday in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Serving at the refreshment table were their three young daughters—Penny, Pamela and Priscilla — Mrs. Jester will be teaching in Rockwood this fall.

GENTEMANN TRAINS
Cadet Phillip M. Gentemann, 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gentemann, Estacada, is scheduled to complete six weeks of training at the Reserve Officer Training Corps summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash., Aug. 2.
