Home Furnishings Show at Coliseum

The latest ideas and trends in furniture and interior decorating can be viewed at the Memorial Coliseum with the opening of the greater Portland Home Furnishings show.

Containing 74 exhibits, the show opens its doors Saturday, Oct. 5, and will continue through Sunday, Oct. 13. Hours are from 2 to 11 p.m. daily and Sunday.

The theme of the show is "Your Home—Your World." A wealth of decorating ideas can be secured in the more than 100 room settings offered by the participating companies, each depicting an influence from various countries of the world.

French Provincial-Mediterranean - Scandinavian - Oriental - our own Colonial and that new exciting Spanish influence. Family and living rooms are especially plentiful in period furniture and these settings have been prepared with emphasis on accessories. There is an enormous exhibit of special interest to the teenager.

Blood Mobile

The Clackamas County Blood Program Committee announced that the Blood Mobile will be in Sandy Nov. 8 to receive your donations.

Mrs. Jim Martin of Sandy was among those who attended a county fire department meeting to discuss the blood program. The fire departments, county-wide were praised by the committee for their fine participation in the program.

The next regular meeting for the committee is set for Oct. 2nd, 8:00 p.m. at the local Red Cross Office in Oregon City.

President Al Gantenbein introduces Sandy's foreign exchange student, Rose Cortez Rivera. Rose is living with the Ralph Hames

Mom-Dads' Club Holds Get-Acquainted Meeting

Moms and Dads club of Sandy high school met in the high school cafeteria Monday evening, Sept. 30, for their first meeting of the new school year, with a good turnout of both teachers and parents.

Before president Al Gantenbein called the meeting to order. The parents had the opportunity to meet and talk with faculty members.

An interesting introductory program was presented. Highlights of the evening get-together included introductions of the new faculty members by Supt. Croston, with a few words of greeting by Ralph Peterson, new Sandy high principal; vocal and instrumental numbers by Mr. Lewis and Mr. James of the music department; a first view of Sandy high's AFS student, Miss Rosalba Cortez Rivera, from Colombia, who presented just a few quick views of her homeland; and a trombone trio composed of Mr. Lewis, Mr. James and Jim Benshoof.

Rob Fussell, Sandy high student body president, introduced the student body officers for the school year. Ken Fredrickson, representing SUHS school board members, introduced the school board members and their wives and gave the moms and dads a report on the progress of the new building program.

Following adjournment, refreshments were served at the fall theme decorated table, with Diane Dyal as hostess.

Roberta Kennedy Wins Scholarship

Roberta Kennedy of Rt. 2, Box 1553, Sandy, will attend Oregon State university this fall with the help of a $250 scholarship.

She was chosen to receive one of the scholarships given each year by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers to encourage outstanding students to prepare for teaching careers in Oregon elementary and secondary schools.

Selection is based on scholarship, character and leadership. Miss Kennedy will be a sophomore at OSU this fall in the School of Education.
