Our new Sandy Post Editor, Betty Hartman is right on the ball. I said to her when she sat her little smiling self down in Dorothy's vacated chair, that if she accomplished nothing else, I'd appreciate the right telephone number at the head of my column, and bless her heart she took care of it for me. Dorothy taught me one thing about columns, and that was to get them in on time and she also taught me how to spell calendar. I always spelled it calendar. Confidentially sometimes I still do out of habit.

Speaking of calendars, birthdays and anniversaries on the Sandy Community Calendar this week are as follows: Monday Oct. 14, Marilyn Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson; Wed. Oct. 16, Eldon Terrell, Alice Nielsen, Marvin Carey, David Sandercock and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gehrt; Thursday Oct. 17, Gary Gray; Friday Oct. 18 Judy Newman, Alfred Schmitz, Christine Neuenfeldt; Sat. Oct. 19, Bob Holt; Sunday Oct. 20, Bunny Potter, David Beeher, Tom Croston.

Clubs meeting this week are Thursday Oct. 17, Kiwanis; Monday Oct. 21, Past Noble Grands Club; Tues. Oct. 22, Chamber of Commerce; Wed. Oct. 23, Presbyterian Ladies Aid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell are the proud new owners of a new Ranch Pambler. I am so happy for them and they deserve all the enjoyment out of this new car. Course I'm a Chevy gal myself. But those new Fords are nice too.

I'm sure glad that the High School Football team finally won another game. Sure gets discouraging when they are on a losing streak, here's hoping they will win this Friday's game.

Next Sunday up on the Glos Ford Car Lot there will be a Sandy Lions Club Auction. Please don't forget to go up and support this project. The Lions have been working hard on this. After all it is for our community's betterment that they are working so, go up and see if they have something for you at the auction, also if you by chance have something that you want to donate to this worthy cause, phone Mu 7-2381 for pick-up service.

Some of the things that have been donated are lamps, stoves, power saw, water pump, a bathtub, metal garage doors, and get this, a twin bed. This will probably go fast, so get your bid in early. If you have never been to an auction, man are they ever fun. You always come home with something that you are so enthused about and the old man says its just something to put in the attic. Oh well. Go and help the Sandy Lions Club on this. All proceeds go to the betterment of the Sandy community. This Sunday at Glos Ford Car Lot at 1 p.m. See you there.

MRS. JOHN GARY DYAL
(Beverly Ann Phinney)

J. Dyal, Beverly Phinney Married In Bellevue

John Gary Dyal of Sandy claimed Beverly Ann Phinney of Cle Elum, Wash. as his bride in a Sept. 28 ceremony at the Chapel of Flowers in Bellevue, Wash. The Rev. David T. Selig officiated and was assisted by the bride's father, the Rev. W. W. Phinney.

Miss Phinney, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of lace and nylon tulle over taffeta, a beaded crown held her veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of red roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Lewis Hemmingsen of Seattle was her sister's matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of white long-stemmed carnations and wore a red satin brocade jacket-dress with white wrist-length gloves. The bridesmaids, Miss Rose Brown and Miss Sharon Phinney, wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor, as did the candlelighters, the Misses Wilmae Renfro and Karen Tuttle, who also wore wristlets of white carnations. Little Kathleen Hemmingsen, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a dress of red velvet.

Gary L. Gaulke of Gresham, acted as best man for his brother-in-law, and Paul Wheeler and Ronald Drye were ushers.

Mrs. Gary L. Gaulke and Gladys Duty cut and served the wedding cake, Miss Darlene Miller served punch, while Mrs. Roy Davenport and Mrs. George Setters served coffee and tea. Little Debbie Geesey passed the groom's cake. Mrs. Thaine Manske had charge of the guest book and David Phinney, brother of the bride, served as junior host.

The new Mrs. Dyal is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Phinney of Cle Elum, Wash. She is a graduate of Northwest Junior College in Kirkland, Washington and is employed as a secretary for the Bellevue Christian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dyal of Sandy and is a graduate of Sandy Union High School. He is presently attending Northwest College in Kirkland.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Dyal chose a beige double-knit suit with red accessories and wore a white orchid corsage, a gift from the groom. The young couple will make their home at 236 107th St. S.E., Bellevue, Washington.

OURECKYS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ourecky of Nampa, Idaho spent the past week-end in Gresham and Sandy visiting relatives and friends and on business.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. James Cook joined them in a trip to Woodburn and Corvallis. In Woodburn they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicholson, former Sandy residents, who are now enjoying their new home in the Senior Citizens Estates.

Nell's Notes

By NELL HOWE
Hood-Land Reporter

Elsie Crieghton passed away on the 9th of October. Another of our true mountaineers gone. One of the most interesting people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. Having known Elsie has certainly made this world a much better place for me to have spent my time. She will be sorely missed on this mountain.

The Elmer Hansens celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary on Sunday last. May they have 28 more equally happy years.

In the December issue of Woman's Day, be sure to be on the lookout for a picture of a Manx cat, drawn by Gloria Gualke. I just received my copy of her first book, and my grandson is mighty pleased with it, as we all are. I have decided it takes an adult to truly enjoy a childrens book. I know when my daughter was small and belonged to a Junior Book of the Month Club, I read all of her books and got as much pleasure out of them as she did. And now I am reading some of them to Chris.

Dave and I went into the city to take Grandma out to lunch. Had a wonderful visit with her and we all ate too much. I wonder what a diet of ice cubes would do for me. Must look into it.

Bill Perry off to the Army last Monday. Tom Kasch awaiting his orders for induction. Kinda cleaning out the mountain. Course it isn't fair to take them during hunting season, but the service doesn't seem to give much thought to season. Wonder if a bill for Congress would give our Legislature something to get their teeth into. They didn't seem to find much to do this last session.

There were seven tables of duplicate bridge on Masterpoint night at the Mt. Hood Country Club, Monday, October 7.

North - South winners were first, Mrs. A. B. Harr and Miss Della Hughes, Portland; second, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jayne, Portland; and third Mrs. Alton Splawn and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Gresham.

All East - West winners were from the Hoodland area. They were as follows: first, Mrs. E. A. Jensen and Alan Jensen; second, Betty Lienkaemper and Keith Bowman; and third, Gladys Deming and Jerry Bechtold.

The next Masterpoint night will be November 4. Let's have some more winners from the mountain. Every Monday night at 7:30 is bridge night at the clubhouse. Gene and Peggy Bowman host the affair and Mr. Arthur Lee of Gresham conducts the play.

WHY*

many Northwesterners go Domeliner "City of Portland" when they travel East.

*Domeliner travel offers something exciting for travelers of all ages. For a housewife, it can be an extra vacation—somebody to wait on her for a change. For active children, there's room on the Domeliner for them to explore, and they are always captivated by the view from the wide windows of the astradomes. Travel by Domeliner is an experience all children treasure.

For Dad, the pleasures are both practical and personal. There's the economy of rail travel, and if the whole family's along—Family Fares offer even greater savings. He can travel free of the strain and hazards of highway driving.

His Pullman room offers complete privacy, or if he's traveling by coach, the seat is as comfortable as his easy chair at home. In the Dome Diner, he can order a meal freshly prepared as tasty as Mother's best Sunday dinner—well, almost—anyway.

For a memorable and delightful experience, enjoy Autumn's colors close up . . . from the Domeliner "City of Portland" . . . to Denver, Omaha and Chicago.

(Family Fares apply in coaches, too, and all seats are reserved.)
