Even if you don't come to buy, a stop at the new Janz Berryland is always worthwhile. Something new and different may be discovered every day. This beautiful array of glads was an eye-catcher last week. Plants, shrubs, flowers, berries and fruits in season, plus garden equipment and supplies are part of the daily colorful display at the gaily painted building.

Quiet Rites Unite Couple

A quiet fireside ceremony at the home of Elder DeWitt Osgood in Port Angeles, united Diana Kaye Waldron and Ray Lee Barton in marriage Saturday, Aug. 1.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. David Pederson of Laurelwood and John Waldron of Seattle. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barton of Port Angeles.

A reception was held in the Lincoln Heights Community club, with about 60 friends and relatives of the young couple in attendance. The new Mrs. Barton attended Hoodview school, Sandy grade and Sandy high school. The groom graduated in June from Roosevelt high school, Port Angeles.

The young couple are at home in Port Angeles, where Barton is employed at Crown Zellerbach.
