Deborah Gunderson Returns From Tour

Deborah Gunderson, 9 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gunderson, Sandy, returned recently from an eight week vacation trip. Deborah flew by jet to New York city where she was met by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Conley, of San Diego. After visiting major points of interest in New York, she toured the nation's capital with her grandparents and sat in the President's chair. Before returning to Sandy Deborah was taken on a motor trip through the Eastern seaboard and inland states.

Deborah's aunt, LaVerne Gunderson, Phoenix, is visiting in Sandy for a month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gunderson.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Youth for Christ Saturday night will present a Sacred Concert in the Volcanic Bowl, Mt. Tabor Park, at 8:30 p.m. featuring the Youth for Christ Continentals and Cam Florida, Music Director.

The Outdoor program will include Concert Choral Selections, Spirituals, a Dramatic Patriotic Presentation, Sing-Along Songs, Hymns, Gospel Songs, Orchestral Settings and numerous small ensembles.

EASIER WALKING

At Washington State University experience are under way to develop a new type of wood joist floor which will serve basement-less houses and be easier to walk on than concrete slab.

Newlyweds Are Touring Europe

After the July 25 wedding of Bonney Louise Shields of Eugene, formerly of Boring, and John S. Clyde of Eugene, the couple left by car for a weeks visit in New York before sailing on the SS Maasdam, Aug. 8 for an extended tour of Europe.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shields, Rt. 2, Box 315, Boring, was graduated from Sandy High and Oregon State. She served as president of the Azalea House, was on the Motor Board and was honored her senior year as one of the "Women of Achievement" of the Campus. She taught math at Sheldon High in Eugene.

Mrs. Sheridan Clyde and the late Sheridan Clyde of Elwood, Ind., are parents of the groom. He received his BA degree from South Dakota University and his masters degree from the University of Oregon. He was boy's counselor at Sheldon High. Enroute to New York, the couple visited with the groom's mother and sister, while in New York, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hunting of Baldwin. Mrs. Hunting is a former resident and teacher of Boring.

Rev. Lloyd R. Stamp performed the single ring ceremony at the First Congregational church in Eugene.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a street length white eyelet dress with a short silk illusion veil held with a white bow. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The floral decorations used in the church were sent to the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Shutes of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde plan to return to teaching upon completion of their European tour.
