Girl of the Month

ROBERTA MATHESON

Guest of honor at Wednesday night's Business and Professional Woman's club dinner meeting at the Pancake House will be Roberta Matheson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matheson of Brightwood. Roberta was selected as December Girl of the Month, chosen for her neatness, by the woman's group. Her special interests are in the field of music along with plans for future traveling. A senior at Sandy high school, Roberta has a scholastic average of 3.6. A member of Future Teachers of America, the honor society and Madrigal, she has three sisters--Carolyn (Mrs. Frank Christensen), Rebecca and Marilyn.

Vows Exchanged
In Catholic Rites

White chrysanthemums banked the altar of the Assumption Catholic church for the Nov. 28 marriage of Miss Caroline Kitto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pollow, Portland, and Alfred D. Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Schmitz, Sandy.

Some 250 guests heard the couple recite their vows before the Rev. John Berger in the noon ceremony. The bride, wearing a traditional white satin gown with floor length train trimmed with a border of flowers, was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Sam Lane, Gresham, was matron of honor and Sandy Martin, Jerri Vanderveger, Barbara Sherman and Mary Lee Sherman, all of Portland, were bridesmaids. The bride's attendants all wore matching gowns of green brocade and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Trease Eddings, niece of the bride was flower girl and Wyllie Eddings, the bride's nephew, acted as ring bearer.

Best man was Sam Lane, Gresham, while Dean Kitto, Clark Lund, Bill Richardson and Gary Skala served as ushers.

At the reception in Holy Cross Catholic Hall which followed the ceremony, Mary Alice Crowell and Mary Skala poured, they were assisted by Evelyn Henderson. Minnie Falkut and Ede Panta cut the wedding cake and Carol Sherman passed the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Reno, the young couple are now making their home in Gresham.

Cottrell
Doings

MRS. H. H. WATKINS

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Koch on Reynolds road, are the parents of a new baby girl born Dec. 26, named Patricia Ellen. She has an older sister.

Bert Wilkinson flew from Los Angeles to spend Christmas with his parents and brother and family, the R. B., and Dwight Wilkinsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook were here from Sacramento visiting relatives at Christmas, the Landon Lee's and Clarence Griffins.

Little Shelley Nippert, 3 years old, fell and fractured her leg. Mrs. Nippert's father, John Carlson of Dodge Park hill, is in the Gresham hospital for some treatment.

Mrs. Ana Meyer of Carpenter Lane, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyer and Alfred Meyer drove to La Center, Wash., Saturday to the funeral of Mrs. Anna Meyer's brother, Robert Lund, who had been ill recently. Mr. Lund was also a brother of Mrs. Reuben Treber of Gresham.

The Harvey Watkins had a phone call from their son, Jim, at Eureka Calif., saying they are isolated. They are unable to leave Eureka in any direction by highway.

Mrs. Joe Caldo is still remaining at the Gresham hospital, her foot is improving, but she may be there awhile longer.

Pete Hauglum is doing fine at home now, after recent surgery.

If on that list you don't find anything that interests you the least little bit remember that in only five months,

There is only one thing that messes up this utopia - type situation. It is a quaint little custom dear to the hearts of all educators in which teachers distribute various green, orange, pink, and yellow "punishment" cards more commonly known as report cards. And worse still - they do it so often. Well I guess that's life, Jan.
