

Enthusiastic ski students from the Sandy area last Saturday attending the Sandy Post-Gresham Outlook Ski School are James Hill and Bob Richey of Sandy and Jim Olds of Boring. Two more weeks remain in the sponsored ski sessions. (Post-Outlook photo)

It was a grand day on Saturday of last week as skiers from miles around converged upon the Mt. Hood ski area. Plenty of fun and thrills are evident from the number of people there. A record traffic was recorded along the Loop Highway over the weekend as the sun was out bright and shiny. (Post-Outlook photo)

Jon Sandstrom, Sandy center, poured 30 points through the hoop in a league contest played at Wy'East Tuesday night as the Pioneers outpointed the Golden Eagles 54-47.

The victory moved the local quintet into a three-way tie for third place in the Wilco league, Parkrose and Molalla continue to be tied for the top spot with Jesuit and Wy'East joining Sandy in the battle for third position.

It was a heyday for Sandstrom as he scored more than half of his team's point total in the game. In the first quarter of play he netted fourteen of the teams 18 point output. The other four points going to Jack Scales. The quarter ended with Sandy trailing by one point, 18-19.

The second quarter was a low scoring one with both teams barely making it into the double figure mark. The Pioneers were forced to come from behind to knot the count at 29 all as the half ended.

Coach Nick Robertson's squad came to life in the third stanza as they poured 16 points through the net to go ahead by a score of 45-38, while in the final quarter the teams matched points. The final outcome bringing the Pioneers their third league win against two defeats.

Friday night finds the team playing on their home court against Jesuit.

Sandy 54 - Jackley 1, Meier 4, Sandstrom 30, Scales 10, Phelps 9.

Wy'East 47 - Lesselyoung 4, Thomas 9, Axford 6, Swyers 7, Slegers 6, Johnson 2, Matthews 1, Benjamin 12.
